Between work, school, raising children, or being a caregiver to an elderly parent, we forget to take the time to stop and count our blessings, to say thank you, and be grateful for the friends and family we have in our lives. I say this all because we never know when someone we care about, someone we love, will be suddenly taken from us. My point is, remember to show gratitude as often as you can. Jeanette Johnson, 2016-01-06 G r a t I t u d e is defined as a feeling of being thankful to somebody for doing something. Like the nine out of ten lepers who were healed by Jesus in the seventeenth chapter of the biblical book of Luke, we forget to say thanks when someone extends kindness or displays concern for what might cause anxiety in our lives. Only one of the lepers came back to Jesus to say thank you. In God's kingdom, gratefulness is encouraged as a way of life. First Thessalonians 5:18 says, In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you. Psalm 136:6 gives you and me two undeniable reasons to be eternally thankful. It says, Give thanks unto the Lord, for he is good. His love endures forever. As we practice being grateful to God for His goodness and everlasting love, we shape our hearts to recognize and honor the goodness and acts of kindness and love one to another. A person with an increasingly grateful heart, is one with a decreasingly complaining mouth. Feel the joy of your life increase as we together build a more grateful heart.
