national directory for catechesis: Partners in Wisdom and Grace Marylin T. Kravatz, 2010-05-10 Creative tension calls for a dialogical conversation in order to find mutual ground that can be beneficial for both partners. Partners in Wisdom and Grace explores the possibility of such tension created by the absence of religious education as a dialogical partner in the National Directory for Catechesis published by the U.S. Bishops in 2005. These queries are central: Will catechesis take religious education as a conversation partner? And, will religious education return the favor? This book concludes that catechesis and religious education remain distinct enterprises that have their own specific identities and make their own particular contributions toward educating for a religious way of life. This is an invitation for catechesis and religious education to generate a continuous healthy dialogue and mutually enrich each other while maintaining their distinct identities.

national directory for catechesis: Online Pre-Evangelization Michael Rossmann, 2025-02-12 Christians seeking to evangelize face innumerable challenges. Many people see the "Good News" as neither good nor newsworthy. Religious indifference runs rampant. Trust in institutions is low. Previous methods of transmitting faith no longer have the same impact in a changed cultural landscape. Young adults are particularly hard for the Church to reach. Many efforts at evangelization will remain ineffective at reaching most religious "nones" without significant preparation, or "pre-evangelization." This process involves patiently tilling the soil to build the necessary trust, curiosity, and openness so that the Gospel message may take root. New media play a crucial role in this work of pre-evangelization. While recognizing the concerning aspects of the digital landscape and the need for embodied community, this book takes a positive approach to leveraging media for evangelization to prepare the way of the Lord today.
