the Qur'anic exegesis authored by Imam Abu Mansur al-Maturidi (d. 944 CE), a seminal figure in Sunni Islamic theology and the eponym of the Maturidi school. This volume covers the 30th Juz of the Qur'an, comprising the final surahs that emphasize themes such as resurrection, divine justice, moral accountability, and the contrast between the righteous and the wicked. It served as a foundational source for later Maturidi scholars and remains influential in Islamic theology and exegesis. This edition aims to present al-Maturidi's insights in an accessible format for modern readers, while preserving the intellectual and doctrinal rigor of the original work. The volume is intended for students, scholars, and readers interested in classical Islamic thought, Qur'anic interpretation, and the development of Sunni theology.

quran juz 1 to 30 list: The Names of God in Judaism, Christianity, and Islam Máire Byrne, 2011-07-07 This book offers a welcome solution to the growing need for a common language in interfaith dialogue; particularly between the three Abrahamic faiths in our modern pluralistic society. The book suggests that the names given to God in the Hebrew Bible, the New Testament and the Qur'an, could be the very foundations and building blocks for a common language between the Jewish, Christian and Islamic faiths. On both a formal interfaith level, as well as between everyday followers of each doctrine, this book facilitates a more fruitful and universal understanding and respect of each sacred text; exploring both the commonalities and differences between each theology and their individual receptions. In a practical application of the methodologies of comparative theology, Maire Byrne shows that the titles, names and epithets given to God in the sacred texts of Judaism, Christianity and Islam contribute towards similar images of God in each case, and elucidates the importance of this for providing a viable starting point for interfaith dialogue.

Bunt, 2024-04-04 This book examines how Islam is digitally mediated at a time of technological change, enhanced digital literacy and proactive engagement in Islamic online content by authorities and influencers. What is the impact of this on societies, believers and understandings of Islam? Islamic Algorithms provides a thorough exploration of Cyber Islamic Environments (CIEs) through representations of significant historical and religious influences across contexts and diversities. This ranges from jinn and angels through to contemporary influencers. Gary R. Bunt raises issues of how digital content is embedded in contemporary understandings of Islam and their dissemination. Bunt shows how the interpretation of pivotal figures in Islam – including Muhammad and his family, scholars and imams – can be informed by new generations of digital influences, such as apps and social networking, which have become primary sources of information for many Muslims globally.
