- Desire for recognition and admiration
- Resistance to criticism
- Feeling of superiority over others
- Inability to admit mistakes

What is Humility?

Humility, on the other hand, is a virtue characterized by an accurate self-assessment, modesty, and an openness to learning. It involves recognizing one's limitations, valuing others' contributions, and maintaining a balanced perspective about oneself.

Characteristics of Humility:

- Openness to feedback
- Recognition of others' worth
- Willingness to admit faults
- Absence of arrogance
- Genuine respect for others
