the millionaire real estate agent pdf: Property and Human Rights in a Global Context Ting Xu, Jean Allain, 2016-03-24 Property as a human rights concern is manifested through its incorporation in international instruments and as a subject of the law through property-related cases considered by international human rights organs. Yet, for the most part, the relationship between property and human rights has been discussed in rather superficial terms, lacking a clear substantive connection or common language. That said, the currents of globalisation have witnessed a new era of interrelation between these two areas of the law, including the emergence of international intellectual property law and the recognition of indigenous claims, which, in fundamental ways, speak to an engagement with human rights law. This collection starts the conversation between human rights lawyers and property lawyers and explores analytical approaches to the increasing relationship between property and human rights in a global context. The chapters engage with key theoretical and policy debates and range across three main themes: The re-evaluation of the public/private divide in the law; the tensions between the market and social justice in development and the balance between the rights of individuals and those of communities. The chapters adopt a global, comparative perspective and engage in case studies from countries including India, Philippines, Brazil, the United States, the United Kingdom and includes various regions of Africa and Europe.

the millionaire real estate agent pdf: 29 Monster Real Estate Agents' Scripts & Tips Bob Bloom, 2017-04-25 My first year in the real estate business, I was a Monster. It was the late 70's and a much different profession. I worked FSBO's, landed my first builder and really focused. I had a blast. I was a Monster and had an annual sales volume that first year of 2.5 million dollars. I could start this book from many directions. Starting at the fact that there was a time when 2.5 million made me a Monster, says it all. The business model has changed dramatically. That was a time when we had an industry award we called the Million Dollar Club. Few of us attained it and if we did, it went on the business card. It was something to be proud of. Today, you may reach that volume as the co-listing agent on one Luxury Listing. That first year I was taught to get a shoebox and keep 3x5 cards in it with my clients' names and info. It was suggested that I arrange the files by phone number because we did not have databases, individual brands or any concept of how to build a business. No one had an assistant. What we did have was The Book. All of the listings came out on Tuesday in a book. This huge book was dropped off at midnight and WE had the book. We could not share the book with our clients. That is what made us valuable. Without me, they had no information. It was a bit like Ralph has the conch... Re/Max was the first big thing to come along. Before that, Monster agents would secretly negotiate our Split. I got up to 70% if I promised not to tell anyone. Many agents had a 50/50 split their whole career. When the Monsters learned they could pay RE/MAX a desk fee and keep their own money..... it changed everything. There was now a real incentive for forward thinkers to develop their own business model, within the real estate sales context. As they did, Gary Keller found them. Keller sought out the Monsters around the country and shared with all of us, what they had done to become one. In his book, The Millionaire Real Estate Agent, Keller taught us all how to run a business instead of sell houses. Now there are Monsters everywhere. Every community has some real estate agents that are running a business. The old 80/20 rule, no longer applies. In most communities, the Monsters are tipping the scales. The ratio is 90/10 in many MLS groups. There are new business models and strategies that are already proven. It no longer means that you are a great salesperson if you are a Monster.
