bhosda: Look Up Sonali Acharjee, 2016-05-01 Is a text the same as a hug? Can trolling be a full-time career? Is FOMO turning out to be a real psychological threat? Indian millennials have not only embraced the virtual space and all its extensions but are also living the fake reality. We now have the ability to reinvent ourselves online and keep our digital ego on fleek—flirting, preening, posting and filtering our way to a perfect profile. Social media has led to trading our offline family for virtual ones, relationships for app-based affairs and birthday greetings for emojis. In this book, the author, through a series of real conversations, breaks down the digital revolution of India and seeks to understand why we've turned into a society of hashtags, tweets, shares and likes.
