VBS Armor of God

Vacation Bible School (VBS) is a cherished time for children to learn about God's Word in a fun and engaging environment. One of the most impactful lessons often taught during VBS is the "Armor of God," a powerful spiritual metaphor found in Ephesians 6:10-18. This teaching helps children understand how to stand firm in their faith amidst life's challenges by equipping themselves with spiritual armor provided by God. In this article, we will explore the significance of the VBS Armor of God, its biblical foundation, the individual pieces of the armor, and how to effectively teach this lesson to children.

Understanding the Armor of God in the Bible

Biblical Context of the Armor of God

The Armor of God is rooted in Ephesians 6:10-18, where the Apostle Paul encourages believers to be strong in the Lord and in His mighty power. Paul uses the imagery of a soldier's armor to illustrate the spiritual resources available to Christians to stand against evil forces.

Key points:

- The Apostle Paul wrote this letter to the church in Ephesus around AD 60-62.
- The "armor" metaphor emphasizes spiritual preparedness and reliance on God's strength.
- The passage highlights that our struggle is not against flesh and blood but against spiritual forces of evil.

Why the Armor of God Matters in VBS

Teaching children about the Armor of God during VBS serves multiple purposes:

- It helps them understand their spiritual identity and protection.
- It encourages reliance on God's power rather than their own.
- It equips them with practical lessons on standing firm amid peer pressure, temptation, and challenges.

The Pieces of the Armor of God

Each piece of armor represents a spiritual truth and virtue that children can apply in their daily lives. Let's explore each component in detail.

- Trusting in Jesus' righteousness, not personal goodness.

Teaching Tip:

Discuss how righteousness acts as a shield against guilt, fear, and spiritual attacks.

Feet Fitted with Readiness from the Gospel of Peace

- Being prepared to share the Gospel.
- Having peace that comes from knowing Jesus.
- Being willing to stand firm and move forward in faith.

Teaching Tip:

- Trusting in God's promises during trials.
- Protecting oneself from doubts, fears, and temptations.
- Strengthening faith through prayer and Scripture.

Teaching Tip:

Share stories of biblical characters who trusted God in difficult times.

Helmet of Salvation

The helmet protects the head, symbolizing salvation that guards the mind.

- Securing hope and assurance of salvation.
- Guarding thoughts against doubt and negative influences.

- Understanding salvation as a gift from God.

Teaching Tip:

Discuss the importance of renewing the mind with God's Word (Romans 12:2).

Sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God

The only offensive piece, representing Scripture.

- Using God's Word to resist the enemy.
- Memorizing Bible verses for spiritual strength.
- Speaking God's truth in everyday situations.

Teaching Tip:

vbs armor of god: Heart-Deep Teaching Gary C. Newton, 2012-05-01 When teaching the Bible, what is the best theory, and what are the best practices to stimulate deeper student learning? Heart-Deep Teaching was written for parents, teachers, and students of the Word who desire to apply its principles in life transforming ways. The concept of “heart-deep teaching and learning” is based on a Hebrew understanding of the “heart” as the innermost essence of a person that involves the mind, emotions, and will. When the heart is engaged by the power of the Holy Spirit within the context of God’s Word, both character and behavioral changes occur. To actively engage students’ emotions, mind, will, and body in learning, a heart-deep teacher uses strategies involving interaction, drama, reflection, story-telling, wonder, movement, creativity, acting-out, problem-solving, and wrestling with the principles discovered in the biblical text. By integrating accurate methods of analyzing the biblical text and current research in teaching and learning, the book attempts to help teachers understand the theoretical and practical skills to create their own lessons, adapt lessons from published curriculums, and improve their own strategies of studying and teaching the Word.

vbs armor of god: Laddie Wayne G. Thompson, 2022-08-05 This is a story about a poor boy lost in obscurity, who struggled to find meaning in life, as he faced many adventures along the way. He was the youngest of three children. His father was gone most of the time, and his mother was of ill health. The man who had the biggest influence on him was his grandfather, whom he called Pop Pop, a godly man who lived next door. Laddie was always the littlest, slender but quick on his feet, which saved him from danger later on. Throughout his life, Laddie had good and bad influences, successes and failures; yet in the end, the good won over the evil. Like the Prodigal Son, he made things right with God before his time on this old earth was done (Luke 15:11). May the following stories be a blessing to you as you search for meaning in your own life as Laddie found the answers in the Lord Jesus Christ. There is no other hope for mankind except in Him.

vbs armor of god: Love Is the Answer Janet D. Johnston, 2025-02-21 Love Is the Answer is the story of God's unfailing, unconditional love, which took me out of that miry pit at age thirty-seven, put my feet on a solid rock, and put a new song in my mouth, and many have seen that love and trusted in Him (Psalm 40:1-3). Book 1: Burundi is the story of His call for me to go to the Batwa pygmies, at that time, an unreached people group in Burundi, Africa, where even the national church thought they were animals. I was not only God's ambassador of His unfailing, unconditional love but also taught them how to read and write, sew, etc., which in turn showed the national church how much God loved them. God's love is the answer! Love Is the Answer Love is the answer; love is the key. Love one another as I first loved thee. Love all you fathers; love all you mothers. Love all you sisters; love all you brothers. For love is the answer; love is the key. Love one another as I first loved thee. A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another; as I have loved you, that you also love one another. (John 13:34)
