florence scovel shinn affirmations pdf: The Game of Life Florence Scovel Shinn, Henderson Daniel, 2012-08-27 Most people consider life a battle, but it is not a battle, it is a game. However it is a game, which cannot be played successfully without the knowledge of spiritual law. The Old and the New Testaments give the rules of the game with wonderful clearness. Jesus Christ taught that it was a great game of Giving and Receiving. Whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap. This means that whatever man sends out in word or deed, will return to him; what he gives, he will receive. Nothing stands between man and his highest ideals and every desire of his heart, but doubt and fear. When man can wish without worrying, every desire will be instantly fulfilled. The invisible forces are ever working for man who is always 'pulling the strings' himself, though he does not know it. Owing to the vibratory power of words, whatever man voices, he begins to attract.

We had annotated this book by adding a 50% (approximately) summary at the end of this book in red font. The brief summary regarding the book is written as belowIt is the word of realization which brings about a change in your affairs; for words and thoughts are a form of radio-activity. Grace Stone was also a passenger on the boat; she had written the Bitter Tea of General Yen, and was going to Hollywood to have it made into a moving-picture; she had lived in China and was inspired to write the book. Moses had orders from the Lord to deliver his people from bondage - Moses and Aaron went in and told Pharaoh - Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Let my people go, that they may hold a feast unto me in the wilderness. It would appear that flesh is indeed heir to a long and ancient line of ills, when, as was revealed by Lord Monyahan at a lecture at Leeds, that the Pharaoh of the oppression suffered from hardening of the heart in a literal sense. The more you resent, the more you will have to resent; you grow a resentment track in your brain, and your expression will be one of habitual resentment. You have a kindly feeling for everyone, and all the organs of your body begin to function properly. The land of Egypt stands for darkness - the house of bondage, where man is a slave to his doubts and fears, and beliefs in lack and limitation, the result of having followed the wrong fork in the road. Each one of you has a Promised Land, a heart's desire, but you have been so enslaved by the Egyptians (your negative thoughts), it seems very far away, and too good to be true. I told the story, at one of my meetings of a man who was so poor and discouraged that he ended it all. I tell in my book, The Game of Life and How to Play It, of a man who asked me to speak the word that all his debts be wiped out. The Psalms are also human documents, and I have selected the 77th Psalm because it gives the picture of a man in despair, but as he contemplates the wonders of God, faith and assurance are restored to him. She went to his exhibition, and in walked a portly businessman, no trace was left of the dashing romantic youth.
