Siglos VIII-XVIII* Roldán Jimeno Aranguren, 2015 Este estudio analiza el matrimonio y las uniones afines en la Navarra medieval y moderna. El matrimonio constituye una de las instituciones de Derecho privado que mayor unidad posee en Occidente, dejando escaso margen a las tradiciones locales, hecha salvedad del periodo altomedieval, en el que la institución tiene grandes singularidades en Navarra. La fuerza del matrimonio a fuero de tierra hizo que la influencia del ius commune tardase en plasmarse en una práctica jurídica generalizada, hecho que no se logró en la totalidad hasta la asunción de los cánones del Concilio de Trento. Tras una introducción en que se traza un planteamiento general del tema, el estado de la cuestión y las fuentes que se han utilizado en la investigación, el libro se estructura en siete capítulos que analizan el contenido, caracterización y clases del matrimonio en Navarra; los requisitos anteriores a la celebración del matrimonio; los efectos patrimoniales; los régimen económico-matrimoniales; la extinción del vínculo matrimonial y las nuevas nupcias; y el concubinato; el amancebamiento y el adulterio. Las conclusiones compendian los aspectos centrales abordados en la investigación, ahora es recorrido histórico-jurídico. Esta obra es el resultado de una parte sustancial de la tesis doctoral en Derecho de su autor, dirigida por el Prof. Dr. Gregorio Monreal y defendida en la Universidad de Deusto; está prologada por el Prof. José Antonio Escudero, presidente del tribunal que la juzgó. Roldán Jimeno Aranguren es Profesor Titular de Historia del Derecho de la Universidad Pública de Navarra, centro al que está adscrito desde el curso 2003-2004. Posee dos licenciaturas (Derecho e Historia, esta última con Premio Extraordinario y Tercer Premio Nacional Fin de Carrera) y tres doctorados (Derecho, Historia y Filosofía y Ciencias de la Educación).
