avancemos 1 pdf: Human Capital versus Basic Income Fabian A Borges, 2022-02-23 Latin America underwent two major transformations during the 2000s: the widespread election of left-leaning presidents (the so-called left turn) and the diffusion of conditional cash transfer programs (CCTs)—innovative social programs that award regular stipends to poor families on the condition that their children attend school. Combining cross-national quantitative research covering the entire region and in-depth case studies based on field research, Human Capital versus Basic Income: Ideology and Models for Anti-Poverty Programs in Latin America challenges the conventional wisdom that these two transformations were unrelated. In this book, author Fabián A. Borges demonstrates that this ideology greatly influenced both the adoption and design of CCTs. There were two distinct models of CCTs: a “human capital” model based on means-tested targeting and strict enforcement of program conditions, exemplified by the program launched by Mexico’s right, and a more universalistic “basic income” model with more permissive enforcement of conditionality, exemplified by Brazil’s program under Lula. These two models then spread across the region. Whereas right and center governments, with assistance from international financial institutions, enacted CCTs based on the human capital model, the left, with assistance from Brazil, enacted CCTs based on the basic income model. The existence of two distinct types of CCTs and their relation to ideology is supported by quantitative analyses covering the entire region and in-depth case studies based on field research in three countries. Left-wing governments operate CCTs that cover more people and spend more on those programs than their center or right-wing counterparts. Beyond coverage, a subsequent analysis of the 10 national programs adopted after Lula’s embrace of CCTs confirms that program design—evaluated in terms of scope of the target population, strictness of conditionality enforcement, and stipend structure—is shaped by government ideology. This finding is then fleshed out through case studies of the political processes that culminated in the adoption of basic income CCTs by left-wing governments in Argentina and Bolivia and a human capital CCT by a centrist president in Costa Rica.

González González, 2014-01-04 Poder y violencia en Colombia es una aproximación a la relación de la violencia con el proceso de contrucción del Estado a los largo de nuestra historia, desde los tiempos coloniales hasta las negociaciones actuales en La Habana. Para ello, el autor combina la mirada sobre los problemas estructurales de larga duración con las concepciones y opciones subjetivas de los actores sociales que optan por la violencia. Esa combinación se enmarca en la interrelación entre los ámbitos de poder nacional, regional o local, que hace que la presencia de las instituciones estatales sea diferenciada según las particularidades de las unidades subnacionales y los distintos momentos de esas interacciones.

Much of the scholarly work on North-South research to date has concentrated principally on joint publications and co-authorship bibliometrics. In this book, cases are explored within the context of study on international research collaborations to highlight the motivations, mechanics, limitations, and success factors involved in the North-South relationships and their resulting research output.

avancemos 1 pdf: Trabajo a través de plataformas digitales Ramón Alfredo Aguilar, 2023-11-05 En un mundo en el que la tecnología está revolucionando todas las formas de interacción humana, la “Economía de Plataformas” ha venido a renovar y potenciar la forma de hacer transacciones en sectores económicos tradicionales. Se trata de modelos de negocios disruptivos, que han logrado la masificación del intercambio de bienes y servicios, de forma ágil, segura y con menor costo para los consumidores, constituyéndose en fuente de nuevas oportunidades y formas de empleo autónomo. Sin embargo, para muchos entendidos, estas nuevas modalidades conducen a la “precarización” de las condiciones en que se prestan estos servicios, especialmente por la falta de protección del Derecho del Trabajo y de la Seguridad Social. Esta realidad, ha llevado -en esta fase aún inicial- a la búsqueda de soluciones enmarcadas en la caracterización de la prestación de servicios a través de plataformas (transportistas públicos, tipo Uber, o repartidores o riders), dentro de la clásica separación binaria del Derecho del Trabajo: “asalariados vs. autónomos”. En torno a lo cual, el autor plantea un amplio estudio de derecho comparado, revisando y analizando las “soluciones” legislativas y judiciales que han brindado diversos países y los criterios de doctrinarios especializados en la materia, encontrando una situación compleja, de criterios contrapuestos y soluciones disímiles y parciales. De su parte, y en lo que concierne a la caracterización, el autor propone la aplicación de la Recomendación R198 de la OIT y de otros indicios aportados por la jurisprudencia latinoamericana, para delimitar la verdadera naturaleza de estos trabajadores, concluyendo en su autonomía. Al mismo tiempo, se reconoce que la caracterización de la actividad y los sujetos de la relación, por si sola, no resuelve los problemas que derivan de la vetustez de la clasificación binaria, ni de la “huida del Derecho del Trabajo” que, ahora, no solo proviene de mecanismos defraudatorios sino de auténticas formas atípicas y autónomas de trabajo, que también requieren de la protección del Derecho del Trabajo y especialmente del Derecho de la Seguridad Social. De esta manera, se alerta sobre la necesaria revisión del Derecho del Trabajo y/o la universalización del Derecho de la Seguridad Social para todos los trabajadores autónomos y se proponen vías idóneas para avanzar en este cometido. Esta meticulosa obra contiene un detallado panorama del trabajo a través de las plataformas digitales desde una perspectiva amplia e integradora, pues no se limita a presentar los aspectos teóricos de la situación sino que, con una visión más pragmática, aplica los indicios planteados en la Recomendación R198 de la OIT y formula una serie de propuestas basadas en el diálogo social; el reconocimiento de nuevas formas de vinculación laboral (parasubordinados, autónomos económicamente dependientes, “trabajadores digitales”); la extensión de derechos para los autónomos en general; y otras garantías inherentes al mundo digital (reputación digital, algoritmos, etc.); que pudieran llevar a los países a unificar políticas públicas que permitan obtener mejores resultados que los alcanzados hasta ahora.

The report compares gender gaps in labour and educational outcomes in Costa Rica with other countries. Particular attention is put on the uneven distribution of unpaid work, and the extra burden placed on women. It investigates how policies and programmes in Costa Rica can make this distribution more equitable. The first part of the report reviews the evidence on gender gaps and their causes, including the role played by social norms. The second part develops a comprehensive framework to address these challenges, presenting a broad range of options to reduce the unpaid work burden falling on women, and to increase women’s labour income. Earlier reviews in the same collection have looked at gender equality policies in Chile (2021), Peru (2022) and Colombia (2023).

avancemos 1 pdf: La doctrina social cristiana y el cooperativismo vasco. Una alternativa para el cambio Eba Gaminde Egia, 2017-04-04 La crisis que desde hace tiempo venimos padeciendo ha evidenciado las limitaciones de los paradigmas económicos tradicionales y la necesidad de un cambio. Se ha de ir más allá del paradigma que ve a las empresas privadas con fines de lucro como los únicos actores relevantes y avanzar hacia una visión pluralista que reconozca los variados papeles que las distintas formas de empresa pueden desempeñar con respecto a objetivos económicos y sociales colectivos. Por otra parte, cada vez son más las voces que sugieren que, en gran medida, han sido carencias éticas las que nos han llevado a esta difícil situación, por lo que se demanda un «rearme ético» de la economía que nos permita salir de la crisis de forma sostenible.

Por lo tanto, se necesita: a) un cambio de valores en el sistema económico, para lo que podría resultar útil el recurso a la Doctrina social de la Iglesia, que desde siempre ha sostenido que entre la economía y la ética se da una necesaria relación recíproca por su común referencia al ser humano; y b) un nuevo paradigma económico, un modelo humanista de empresa, que tenga en cuenta la igual dignidad humana de todas las personas que participan en el proyecto empresarial y la empresa cooperativa encaja en ese perfil. Conjugando ambos vectores, esta obra pretende mostrar la interrelación existente entre la doctrina social cristiana y el paradigma cooperativo, claramente reflejado en el caso del cooperativismo vasco a través de la figura de D. José María Arizmendiarieta, el alma mater de la «Experiencia Cooperativa de Mondragón», que muestra que es posible que una empresa de profundas raíces cristianas, lejos de ser una simple utopía, ofrezca resultados y pueda ser competitiva en el mercado actual. De esa forma, se abre la posibilidad de presentar al modelo cooperativo, como una posible alternativa para ese cambio, hoy tan necesario.

avancemos 1 pdf: City of Flowers Susan E. Mannon, 2017 City of Flowers is an ethnographic study of social and economic change in Costa Rica. Rather than investigate how macroeconomic forces bear down on workers and households, this book explores how individuals and households give meaning and shape to neoliberalism as it evolves over time. Drawing on twenty years of field work and 100 life histories of people living in one Costa Rican city, the book considers how individuals in four different class locations negotiate the economic changes going on around them. Author Susan E. Mannon argues that these responses are bound up in class, race, and gender aspirations and anxieties. City of Flowers is a volume in the ISSUES OF GLOBALIZATION: CASE STUDIES IN CONTEMPORARY ANTHROPOLOGY series, which examines the experiences of individual communities in our contemporary world. Each volume offers a brief and engaging exploration of a particular issue arising from globalization and its cultural, political, and economic effects on certain peoples or groups.
