Understanding the Origins of Human Design

The Life and Vision of Ra Uru Hu

Ra Uru Hu, born Robert Allan Krakower, experienced a transformative event in 1987 that he described as a profound spiritual awakening. During this experience, he received a series of divine revelations that would form the foundation of the Human Design System. His teachings synthesize ancient wisdom and modern science, providing a practical map for living in harmony with one's true nature.

The Conception of Human Design System

The system is designed to decode the genetic blueprint of each individual, offering insights into their personality, strengths, challenges, and life purpose. Ra Uru Hu emphasized that understanding our design allows us to operate in alignment with our authentic self, thus reducing resistance and increasing fulfillment.

The Core Components of the Human Design System

The Bodygraph: The Map of Human Design

The Bodygraph is the visual representation of an individual's design, composed of nine centers, 64 gates, and 36 channels. It functions similarly to a cosmic blueprint, illustrating how energy flows through a person's system.

- Centers: These are energy hubs that correspond to specific functions such as communication, intuition, or identity.
- Gates: Points within the centers that activate specific traits or tendencies.

- Channels: Connections between gates that facilitate energy movement.

The Types: Strategies for Living

Ra Uru Hu identified four main types, each with its unique strategy for making decisions and interacting with the world:

- Manifestors: Initiators who are designed to inform before acting.
- Generators: Builders with sustained energy, best served by responding to life.
- Projectors: Guides who excel when recognized and invited into opportunities.
- Reflectors: Mirrors of their environment, sensitive to the collective energy.

The Authorities: Decision-Making Strategies

Each person has a specific authority that guides their decision-making process:

- Emotional Authority
- Sacral Authority
- Splenic Authority
- Ego Authority
- Self-Projected Authority
- Environmental/No Inner Authority (for Reflectors)

The Genesis and Philosophy Behind the Book

Ra Uru Hu experienced a profound mystical revelation in 1987, which he described as an "inner voice" guiding him to develop Human Design. Over the subsequent years, he meticulously documented his insights, blending astrology, the I Ching, Kabbalah, the Chakra system, and quantum physics into a cohesive framework.

Philosophical Foundations:

- Authenticity Over Conditioning: Emphasizes understanding and aligning with one's true nature rather than societal expectations.

- Decision-Making Strategy: The core premise is that individuals have a specific "Authority" guiding them toward correct choices.
- Genetic Blueprint: Positions each person's chart as a genetic code that reveals innate strengths, vulnerabilities, and life paths.
- Energy as a Tool: Views human energy as a system of channels and centers, akin to an electrical circuit, which can be mapped and optimized.

Ra's approach is deeply rooted in the belief that understanding one's design leads to greater happiness, health, and fulfillment.

Core Concepts Explored in the Book

The Definitive Book of Human Design systematically introduces the reader to the foundational components of the system. These concepts are interconnected, creating a holistic picture of human energy and behavior.

1. Types: The Five Archetypes of Human Energy

The book elaborates on the five main Types, each with distinct strategies and roles:

- Manifestors: Initiators capable of acting independently; their strategy is to inform before acting.
- Generators: The life force energy of the planet; they are builders and doers, guided by response.
- Manifesting Generators: A subtype of Generators characterized by speed and multifaceted activity.
- Projectors: Guides and advisors, with a focus on recognition; their strategy involves waiting for invitation.
- Reflectors: Mirrors of their environment, highly sensitive, with a strategy of waiting a lunar cycle before decisions.

Each Type's section details:

- Their unique aura and energy dynamics
- Best practices for decision-making
- Challenges and growth opportunities

2. Centers: The Body's Energy Hubs

Drawing from the chakra system, the Centers are energy nodes that influence physical, emotional, and mental states:

- Defined Centers: Consistent and reliable energies
- Undefined Centers: Open to external influences, offering wisdom and flexibility

The book provides in-depth analysis of each Center, including:

- Their functions and significance
- How defined and undefined states influence behavior
- Common patterns and potential pitfalls

3. Authorities: The Inner Compass

Ra emphasizes that effective decision-making hinges on recognizing one's Authority, the internal guidance system:

- Emotional Authority: Wait through emotional wave swings
- Sacral Authority: Immediate response from the gut
- Splenic Authority: Instant instincts and intuition
- Ego Authority: Decisions based on willpower and desires
- Self-Projected Authority: Voice and identity guidance
- Envoy Authority: External environment and community cues
- Lunar Authority (for Reflectors): Waiting a lunar cycle

The book dedicates significant space to understanding how to identify and trust one's Authority for authentic living.

4. Profiles and Incarnation Crosses

Profiles describe personality archetypes based on the I Ching lines, revealing how individuals interact with the world:

- Examples include The Hermit, The Role Model, The Opportunist, etc.
- Profiles influence life themes, communication styles, and growth paths

Incarnation Crosses are life themes derived from planetary activations, indicating overarching life purpose and direction.

The Practical Application of Human Design

Ra Uru Hu's work extends beyond theory; it provides actionable insights for everyday life, relationships, health, and career.

1. Decision-Making and Strategy

The cornerstone of Human Design is using one's Strategy and Authority to make decisions. This approach reduces resistance, stress, and misalignment.

Steps to apply:

- Identify your Type and Strategy

- Recognize your Authority
- Practice making decisions aligned with these insights
- Observe shifts in energy and outcomes

2. Relationships and Compatibility

Understanding design charts can improve communication and harmony by:

- Recognizing each person's energy dynamics
- Appreciating differences in decision-making strategies
- Navigating conflicts with awareness of conditioning and openness

3. Personal Growth and Self-Understanding

The book guides readers to:

- Accept their inherent design rather than repress or deny aspects
- Embrace vulnerabilities as sources of strength
- Optimize energy management based on Centers and Type

the definitive book of human design ra uru hu: A Modern Guide to Human Design

Rachel Lieberman, 2023-10-24 Wouldn't it be great if we were handed an instruction manual, not only for ourselves but the people we love? Our Human Design chart is this blueprint for navigating life as our true selves, releasing outside pressures and beliefs, and allowing our innate magic to shine. The world teaches us that the truth comes from outside of us—family, friends, experts, institutions—and that we make our best decisions with logic. Human design proposes a new reality: We each have a built-in navigation system. We are each wired for our own unique purpose! Have you realized that things go smoothly when you trust your gut? You might be a Generator. Do you need to "sleep on it" when making a big decision? You might have Emotional Authority. Has anyone ever told you that you give the best advice? You could be a Projector. Do you bristle when others tell you what to do because you know you're here to impact the world by doing things your way? You may have a Manifestor aura. Have you always just felt more sensitive and different than everyone around you? You might be part of the 1% as a rare Reflector. The best thing about human design is that it recognizes something we all know but often forget: We are all different. Our human design chart is the tangible blueprint for moving away from living the life that society expects of us and stepping into our special gifts and magic. Wouldn't it be incredible to have an instruction manual explaining how to have the best relationship with your child, partner, friends, or coworkers? the definitive book of human design ra uru hu: The Prophecy of Ra Uru Hu Steve Rhodes, 2015-01-15 In January 1987, Robert Alan Krakower, a former media producer and magazine publisher from Canada, had a mystical encounter on the Mediterranean island of Ibiza that lasted eight days and eight nights. During this time he did not eat, drink, or sleep. He received information about our universe, the design of all living forms, and most importantly, about a mutation in the human body that will lead to the emergence of a new species, the Rave, in 2027. With it, the evolutionary program will turn its back on humanity. The Industrial Revolution and the nation states as we know them will come to an end. The coming Rave will look human on the outside, but will have little in common with us. In fact, Raves will appear severely disabled. But the moment three of them come together they turn into "one being" with a shared consciousness that can do things that are unimaginable to us humans. Krakower was told the universe is an unborn living entity and that life in Earth will come to an end in about 1,200 years when it will be hit by a meteor. There will be no more biological life after Earth. However, this will be the beginning of yet another journey for us through the solar system with the emergence of the Eron. It will not eat or breathe. It will not die. And it will live as long as the universe exists.
