stone cold steve austin the wrestler: Stone Cold Steve Austin ?The Rattle Snake? Marlow Martin, 2014-03 Worked in Texas on a loading dock until he became a pro wrestler in the late-80s. First became recognized in USWA (United States Wrestling Association) where he changed his name from Steve Williams to Stunning Steve Austin (due to the fact there was already a Dr Death Steve Williams) he was then signed by the much bigger World Championship Wrestling (WCW) where he conquered the singles ranks by becoming the WCW Television Champion on a few occasions and the WCW United States Title, he also conquered the WCW Tag-Team ranks along with the late Brian Pillman, collectively known as The Hollywood Blondes (Austin, at the time, had long blonde hair). Had a falling out with WCW head Eric Bischoff in Mid-1995 when Bischoff fired him over-the phone. Went to Extreme Championship Wrestling (ECW) in late 1995 mostly as a commentator (He did wrestle a few matches, though.) Established himself as a no-nonsense, garbage-mouthed punk. Left ECW and emerged in the World Wrestling Federation (WWF) as The Ringmaster, along with manager Million Dollar Man Ted DiBiase. That gimmick was weak and Austin was silenced by WWF Brass because of his reputation. Finally dumped DiBiase and changed his name to Stone Cold Steve Austin, shaved his head, and had a gimmick as a Natural-Born Killer (He does strike a close resemblance to Woody Harrelson from the movie). Started his trash-talking and ass-kicking when he defeated Jake The Snake Roberts in the final round of the 1996 WWF King of The Ring Tournament, which was where he coined the famous Austin 3:16 while mocking Roberts for his religious beliefs. Austin 3:16 was a phenomenon. He is the only person to do that other than the great Hulk Hogan who did it in the 80's with the Hulkamania phenomenon. Austin 3:16 is about as big as Hulkamania was in the 80's to the mid-90s. Austin conquered the WWF in 1997 when he captured the WWF Intercontinental Title on 2 occasions, the Tag-Team Titles on 2 occasions (with Shawn Michaels and Dude Love Mick Foley, respectively). And in 1998 when he achieved the ultimate career goal, the WWF World Title on 3 occasions and another Tag-Team Title reign with The Undertaker.
