Overview of the Inferno of Dante

What is the Inferno?

The Inferno is an allegorical journey through Hell, guided by the Roman poet Virgil. It depicts Dante's traversal through nine concentric circles of Hell, each reserved for different types of sinners. The poem is both a personal spiritual quest and a reflection of medieval Christian theology, emphasizing divine justice and moral order.

The Context of Dante's Work

Dante's Divine Comedy was written during a tumultuous period in Italy's history, marked by political strife and personal exile. His work encapsulates the moral and spiritual concerns of his time, blending classical philosophy with Christian doctrine. The Inferno, as its opening section, sets the stage for the entire journey, emphasizing themes of repentance, justice, and redemption.

Structure of the Inferno

The Nine Circles of Hell

Dante's Hell is structured into nine concentric circles, each designated for different sins. The deeper the circle, the more severe the sin and the punishment.

The Nine Circles:

1. Limbo: Virtuous non-Christians and unbaptized infants.
2. Lust: Souls overcome by carnal desires.

3. Gluttony: Excessive indulgence in food and drink.
4. Greed: Avarice and prodigality.
5. Anger: Wrath and sullenness.

Each circle has a unique punishment that symbolically reflects the nature of the sin committed.

With this major new translation, Anthony Esolen has succeeded brilliantly in marrying sense with sound, poetry with meaning, capturing both the poem's line-by-line vigor and its allegorically and philosophically exacting structure, yielding an Inferno that will be as popular with general readers as with teachers and students. For, as Dante insists, without a trace of sentimentality or intellectual compromise, even Hell is a work of divine art. Esolen also provides a critical Introduction and endnotes, plus appendices containing Dante's most important sources—from Virgil to Saint Thomas Aquinas and other Catholic theologians—that deftly illuminate the religious universe the poet inhabited.

Described as the fifth gospel because of its evangelical purpose, this spiritual autobiography creates a world in which reason and faith have transformed moral and social chaos into order. It is one of the most important works in the literature of Western Europe and is considered the greatest poem of the European Middle Ages.
