Book 1 Katrina Hoert knows grief and anger intimately. After her brother dies in combat, she is left with questions, no answers, and generic condolences and the insinuation that she needs to let it go. What's done is done. But Katrina isn't that kind of sister. Determined to get justice, Katrina seeks out some of her late brother's fellow military brothers. A gala for fallen soldiers feels like her last chance to find answers. Unsurprisingly, she's blown off again, and her concerns are dismissed. Everyone wants her to be quiet. Why? What is being hidden? The truth? She's about to crumble under the pressure and pain when she meets a Marine veteran. Not only is he dangerously handsome, mysterious, and intimidating, but Orion is also the only one who will listen to her—after she makes him listen. What starts as one hot night together, turns into something else entirely. Something Katrina never saw coming. Book 2 Grief is the shadow, and anger is the silhouette it casts... Orion can't stop thinking about Katrina Hoert. So much so, he stops at nothing to track her down. When he has his eyes on something he wants, he's a force to be reckoned with. If she's hiding, he'll find her. As it turns out, she's not hiding at all. She's just living her life back in her hometown. Until Orion shows up at the school where she teaches. Wary of Orion's invasion, but curious as to why finding her mattered so much to him, Katrina invites him into her life. She's cautious, and so is her father. They've gone through the worst kind of pain together. Orion can see they need help, and with his connections, he promises to do his best to find out what happened to her brother. But nothing is ever that easy. Someone in town has been watching Katrina and when Orion catches wind of the danger the marine inside him rages to life. For something that happens every year of our lives, we really don't know much about Christmas. We don't know that the date we celebrate was chosen by a madman, or that Christmas, etymologically speaking, means Go away, Christ. We're oblivious to the fact that the advent calendar was actually invented by a Munich housewife to stop her children pestering her for a Christmas countdown. And we would never have guessed that the invention of crackers was merely a way of popularising sweet wrappers. Luckily, like a gift from Santa himself, Mark Forsyth is here to unwrap this fundamentally funny gallimaufry of traditions and oddities, making it all finally make sense - in his wonderfully entertaining wordy way.
