2013-01-01 While Edgar Allan Poe was most famous for his eerie tales of murder, ghouls, and suspense, he is also credited with paving the way for the future of detective stories with his character C. Auguste Dupin. Dupin made his first appearance in the murder mystery The Murders in the Rue Morgue, a tale about the murder of two women. When Dupin questioned witnesses, everyone claimed that the murderer was speaking a different language, yet none of the witnesses could place his accent. Dupin put himself in the mind of the killer and read the faces of witnesses, suspects, and other persons of interest. He also drew inspiration and ideas from outside resources such as newspapers or police reports. As Dupin sought to unravel the mystery, Poe was creating an archetypal character that would be followed by many other great detectives. In the collection The Murders in the Rue Morgue: The Dupin Tales, Poe allows Dupin's genius to shine in stories like The Murders in the Rue Morgue, The Mystery of Marie Roget, and The Purloined Letter. These tales are not typical Poe stories, but instead all follow the cases that detective Dupin solves after other police and investigators are stumped. Dupin showed that, with a little ingenuity and creativity, even the most difficult case could be solved. Mystery lovers and Poe fans will all enjoy this groundbreaking collection and the intrigue that Poe creates within it.

murders in the rue morgue book: The Murders in the Rue Morgue Edgar Allan Poe, 2017-01-03 L'histoire se déroule à Paris, au XIX^e siècle. Dupin et le narrateur apprennent qu'un meurtre déroute les policiers français : on a retrouvé les cadavres de deux femmes de la famille Espanaye, une mère et sa fille, vivant en vieilles filles dans un immeuble de la rue Morgue. Le corps de la fille présente des marques de strangulation et était violemment encastré dans le conduit de cheminée. Celui de la mère avait la gorge tranchée net, et se trouvait moitié démembré sur les pavés de la cour derrière l'immeuble. Or, il n'y a ni mobile pour le crime, ni même une explication plausible. Les fenêtres sont fermées et bloquées de l'intérieur mais personne n'a pu s'enfuir par la porte puisque des gens, entendant les cris, s'y sont précipités. Tous les témoins (les voisins ayant entendu une partie de la scène) s'accordent à dire qu'il y avait deux voix, bien distinctes, dont une grave, parlant français. Cependant, personne ne peut s'accorder sur la deuxième qui paraît étrangère à tous les témoins. Ceux-ci sont pourtant de nationalités diverses et variées. Dupin décide de résoudre l'affaire. Grâce à ses contacts dans la police, il peut fouiller le lieu du crime, et grâce aux indices, parvient à la solution sans que le lecteur ne le sache à ce moment-là.
