They are soon summoned to join King Caspian X on a voyage aboard the ship Dawn Treader, which aims to explore the eastern seas of Narnia and find the missing Lords of Narnia and the edge of the world. As the voyage progresses, the crew encounters numerous wondrous islands, mythical creatures, and moral challenges that test their character and faith.

Faith and Trust

Throughout the voyage, characters are called to trust in unseen forces and in each other. Aslan's appearances and guidance embody divine intervention, emphasizing faith in higher powers and moral integrity.
