over the hedge two: Over the Hedge 2 Lewis, T, Michael Fry, 1997-05-01 These are wicked little guys who'll pick your pocket as they steal your heart.--Ted Koppel, host of ABC's Nightline Suburbanites treasure their sameness, safety, and security, little knowing what lurks just Over the Hedge. There, in a strikingly successful comic strip created by writer Michael Fry and illustrator T Lewis, reside the only slightly displaced original inhabitants of the land: R.J., an irascible raccoon, and his sidekick turtle, Verne. Verne and R.J. have found little trouble adapting to the ways of their human neighbors. In fact, the relationship works out just perfectly when it comes to borrowing their hot tubs, setting the table with gourmet leftovers, or relaxing on their lawn furniture. It's not that the dynamic duo don't want to stick up for sovereign rights to their turf. It's just that barbecue feasts, television, and even computers keep luring them closer to the enemy camp. Now in Over the Hedge 2, Fry and Lewis present their second tour de farce. They've got RJ arguing with one of his woodland neighbors, This 'angry white mole' thing is so early eighties. There's Verne breaking the Internet by e-mailing seven million copies of Spam and potato chip pie recipe. And also, both of the boyz in the wood taking off in their human-neighbor Nate's Harley with the help of training wheels and a nine-iron pedal extender. Through it all, Fry, who also produces the nationally syndicated strip Committed, sustains a wickedly funny commentary on the joys of suburban living, while Lewis, a successful illustrator of fourteen children's books, keeps the masked wonder and his shell-shocked companion fresh from frame to frame. Over the Hedge 2 is sure to appeal to animal lovers, suburbanites, and anyone who can laugh at the human condition, as seen through the eyes of two nearly-human opportunists.

moments, Panther calls out and asks Adam a question. "What does immortal mean?" I answer, "living forever, incorruptible, I suppose." Hamish calls out, "What's that actually mean though." "well, it means our bodies don't decay or rot, we live forever like we do today in eternity." "Then Adam, tell us why down on earth do earthlings bother about all the preaching associated with Gods and Deities? Creating fear over sin and all that other stuff like devils and hell, Purgatory, Limbo and the garbage about Angels and Heaven?" I give a big sigh and say, "Gee you guys the questions seem really dark this morning, what's brought this on?" Panther stares directly into my eyes and says, "We just want to know the truth. You know down on earth animals were not able to talk with an earthling but up here we all speak to each other now that's weird don't you think?" I nod in agreement and say, "You know guys when humans first were established on the earth they had no language to communicate with each other and it was the various sounds made by animals that were taken on board with humans and they with a more balanced mind were able to take animal sounds and make words from them. So you see all animals gave to earthling the gift of the gab. It didn't take long for earthlings to realise that cats and dogs could manipulate earthlings to be their nanny and that hasn't changed since we came to "The Wilderness Park" we are still your nanny." "Well then pipes up Panther, we can't be that thick after all if it is animals who started off language to help earthlings exist." I nod in agreement.
