The History and Significance of Old Fashioned Christmas Cards

Origins of Christmas Cards

The tradition of sending Christmas cards dates back to the 19th century. The first known Christmas card was designed in 1843 by Sir Henry Cole, a British civil servant, who commissioned artist John Calcott Horsley to create a card depicting a festive scene with the message "A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year." These early cards quickly gained popularity, especially among the Victorian upper class, and set the foundation for the holiday greeting card industry.
