Whether you're an avid traveler, a nature enthusiast, or simply looking for a scenic day trip, this journey offers a perfect blend of coastal beauty, charming villages, and cultural attractions. This guide will help you explore the best ways to travel from Padstow to St Ives, the key sights along the way, and tips to make your trip memorable.

Understanding the Route: Padstow to St Ives

The distance between Padstow and St Ives is approximately 50 miles (80 km), depending on the route taken. The journey typically involves traveling through Cornwall's stunning countryside, along its rugged coastline, and through quaint fishing villages. The route is popular among travelers seeking to experience Cornwall's diverse scenery, from sandy beaches to lush green hills.

Modes of Transport

There are several ways to travel from Padstow to St Ives:

- Car: The most flexible option, allowing you to explore at your own pace.
- Public Transport: Combining train and bus services offers an economical alternative.
- Cycling: For adventurous travelers, cycling allows an up-close experience of Cornwall's landscape.
- Walking: Suitable for those on a multi-day trip, especially along the South West Coast Path.

Each option has its own advantages and considerations, which we will explore further.

Traveling by Car: The Most Convenient Choice

Driving from Padstow to St Ives offers the most convenience, especially if you want to stop at various sights along the way. The journey typically takes about 1.5 to 2 hours, depending on traffic and stops.

Recommended Driving Route

The most common route involves taking the A30 trunk road westward, then branching off onto smaller B roads leading to coastal towns and villages. Here's a step-by-step outline:

1. Start in Padstow, heading southwest on the A389.
2. Follow signs to Wadebridge and then connect to the A39, also known as the Atlantic Highway.
3. Continue along the A39, passing through or near towns like Camelford and Davidstow.
4. Take the A3074 towards the coast, passing through towns like Bude and Stratton.
5. Follow signs towards St Ives via the A3074 and B3311, enjoying coastal views along the way.

Tips for Driving

- Be aware of narrow country lanes and village traffic.
- Check parking options in St Ives beforehand, as it can get crowded.
- Plan for potential delays during peak seasons or holiday weekends.
- Use GPS or reliable maps to navigate rural areas effectively.

Public Transport: Trains and Buses

Public transportation provides an eco-friendly and cost-effective way to travel, though it requires some planning.

Train Routes and Connections

While there is no direct train from Padstow to St Ives, you can combine train and bus services:

- Take a train from Padstow to Bodmin Parkway (via Bodmin & Wenford Railway).
- From Bodmin Parkway, catch a train to St Erth or Penzance.
- From St Erth, take a branch line train directly to St Ives.

Alternatively, travel via Plymouth:

- From Padstow, take a train to Exeter St Davids.
- From Exeter, travel to Plymouth.
- From Plymouth, catch a train to St Ives via St Erth.

Bus Services

- Several bus companies operate routes connecting towns like Wadebridge, Newquay, and St Ives.
- The Cornwall Bus network offers frequent services along the coast, with scenic routes highlighting Cornwall’s beauty.

Advantages and Considerations

Advantages	Considerations
-----	-----
Cost-effective	Longer travel time
Eco-friendly	Requires transfers and planning
Opportunity to enjoy local scenery	Limited flexibility without a timetable
