united kingdom kennel club breeds: Dogs and Cats in South Korea Julien Dugnoille, 2021-12-15 Dogs and Cats in South Korea: Itinerant Commodities shows that though dogs and cats are consumed in the millions each year, they are recipients of both cruelty and care in a very unique way compared to other animal species in South Korean society. The anti-imperialist and postcolonial stances associated with the consumption of dogs and cats in South Korea are oversimplistic. Stereotypes by societies that do not eat these animals overshadow the various ways in which South Korean citizens interact with them, including companionship. In fact, many dogs and cats go from companion to livestock, and from livestock to companion, demonstrating that the relationships with these creatures are not only complex, but also fluid. The trajectories of the lives of dogs and cats are never linear. In that sense, individual dogs and cats in South Korea are itinerant animals navigating an exchange system based on culture, economics, and politics. With nuance and cultural understanding, Dugnoille tells the complicated stories of these animals in South Korea, as well as the humans who commoditize and singularize them.

This volume also explores the role of pets in our lives, advocacy movements on behalf of animals, and the role of animals in art and media culture. Authors Julie Urbanik and Connie L. Johnston introduce the concept of animal geography, present different aspects of human-animal relationships worldwide, and highlight the importance of examining these interconnections. united kingdom kennel club breeds: Grace Jyoti Mestry, 2021-04-07 I have written the book with the sole aim to make an honest attempt to share my subjective experiences and objective observations that have transformed my life from the day my path crossed with that of Grace's. The presence of pure unconditional love and undeniably full proof loyalty changed the layers of my life's fabric. I wish the would-be pet-parents will take a clue from the content and avoid making any mistakes that I made knowingly and unknowingly. I am also rooting for the cause of strict ban/control over breeding, sale of pets. I want to promote adoption of the pets instead of purchase. I hope the readers identify with and enjoy our moments and also get the message while turning the pages. I have tried to be unflinchingly honest about my feelings for Grace. In doing so, I am sorry if some feathers are ruffled but the intention is not at all to do so. Without any doubt or hesitation, the worst part of the process of writing this journey is that it has made me feel emotionally exposed. I wish the would-be parents realize, absorb the fact that we are chosen and blessed and must be grateful to the Universe for having our life immersed in rainbow colors. There is undoubtedly always a purpose when a pet walks in your life. From being not a pet lover to helicopter pet mom has been nevertheless a revolutionary change in my life. This bond surpasses all the pleasures derived from all the materialistic things or relations. That is my personal ultimate realization. She has taken me on uncharted journey through the stratosphere.
