

ottawa is in what province

Ottawa is in what province

Ottawa, the vibrant capital city of Canada, is renowned for its rich history, diverse culture, and political significance. Many people curious about this prominent city often ask, Ottawa is in what province. In this comprehensive guide, we will explore the geographical location of Ottawa, its provincial affiliation, the significance of its location, and interesting facts related to its position within Canada. Whether you're a visitor planning your trip or a student researching Canadian geography, this article aims to provide clear and detailed insights about Ottawa's provincial status.

Understanding the Geographical Location of Ottawa

Where is Ottawa Located?

Ottawa is situated in the eastern part of Canada. More specifically, it is located in the southeastern corner of the country, near the border with the United States. The city is positioned on the southern bank of the Ottawa River, which acts as a natural boundary between the provinces of Ontario and Quebec.

The geographical coordinates for Ottawa are approximately:

- Latitude: 45.4215° N
- Longitude: 75.6972° W

This places Ottawa well within the eastern region of Canada and within proximity to several major Canadian cities like Montreal and Toronto.

Proximity to Major Cities and Landmarks

Ottawa's location makes it a central hub for political, cultural, and economic activities in Eastern Canada. Some notable nearby cities include:

1. Montreal, Quebec – approximately 200 km east of Ottawa
2. Toronto, Ontario – about 450 km southwest of Ottawa
3. Quebec City, Quebec – around 400 km northeast of Ottawa

The city is also close to natural landmarks such as Gatineau Park and the Ottawa River, making it a scenic and strategic location.

Which Province is Ottawa Located In?

Ottawa's Provincial Affiliation

The simple answer to the question, Ottawa is in what province, is that Ottawa is located in the province of Ontario. It is the capital city of Ontario and serves as the political and administrative center of the province.

Historical Context of Ottawa's Provincial Status

Historically, the area now known as Ottawa was part of the Province of Quebec when European settlers first arrived in the 17th and 18th centuries. However, the city's strategic location along the Ottawa River made it an ideal site for the national capital, especially as the nation was seeking a location that balanced the interests of both Ontario and Quebec.

In 1857, Queen Victoria selected Ottawa as the capital of the Province of Canada (a precursor to the modern federal structure), and it officially became the capital of the entire country in 1867, following Canadian Confederation. Over time, the city's boundary was established within the boundaries of Ontario, solidifying its status as part of this province.

Legal and Administrative Boundaries

Ottawa is part of the Eastern Ontario region and is governed by the City of Ottawa, which is a single-tier municipality within the province of Ontario. The city is divided into multiple neighborhoods and districts, but all fall under Ontario's jurisdiction for provincial laws, education, transportation, and other administrative functions.

The Significance of Ottawa's Location in Ontario

Political and Governmental Importance

Ottawa's placement within Ontario is crucial for its role as the nation's capital. The Canadian federal government, including Parliament Hill, embassies, and numerous government agencies, are located in Ottawa. The city's location within Ontario also facilitates:

- Proximity to provincial government offices in Toronto and other Ontario cities
- Ease of transportation and communication with other parts of the province
- Hosting of national and regional political events

Economic and Cultural Impact

Being part of Ontario, Canada's most populous province, grants Ottawa access to a diverse economy and vibrant cultural scene. The city benefits from:

1. Strong connections to Ontario's economic hubs
2. Participation in provincial cultural festivals and events
3. Access to Ontario's transportation networks, including highways and railways

Educational and Research Institutions

Ottawa is home to several prominent universities and research centers, many of which collaborate with Ontario-based institutions. These include:

- University of Ottawa
- Carleton University
- National Research Council of Canada

Their proximity within Ontario enhances research opportunities and academic collaborations.

Additional Interesting Facts About Ottawa's Location

Ottawa and its Neighboring Province

While Ottawa is firmly within Ontario, its close proximity to Quebec has fostered a unique bilingual culture. Many residents speak both English and French, reflecting the city's position near the Quebec border and its historical ties to both provinces.

Natural Borders and Geography

The Ottawa River, which runs along the city's northern and western boundaries, serves as an important natural border. The river also connects to the St. Lawrence River, making Ottawa part of a larger waterway network that has historically facilitated trade and movement.

Climate and Environment

Ottawa experiences a humid continental climate, characterized by cold winters and warm summers. Its geographical position within Ontario influences its weather patterns, which are typical of Eastern Canada.

Summary

To summarize:

- Ottawa is located in the eastern part of Canada.
- It is situated within the province of Ontario.
- The city serves as Ontario's capital and Canada's political hub.
- Its strategic location along the Ottawa River and near Quebec has shaped its cultural and economic landscape.
- Ottawa's proximity to other major cities and natural landmarks enhances its significance regionally and nationally.

Conclusion

Understanding the question, Ottawa is in what province, reveals much about the city's historical, political, and geographical importance. As the capital city of Ontario and Canada, Ottawa's location has played a pivotal role in shaping its identity and significance. Its positioning within Ontario not only influences governance and economy but also reflects its unique cultural blend due to its proximity to Quebec. Whether for travel, study, or general knowledge, knowing Ottawa's provincial status provides a clearer picture of its role within the vast mosaic of Canadian geography.

If you're planning a visit or conducting research, remember that Ottawa's location within Ontario makes it accessible, culturally rich, and historically significant—truly a city at the heart of Canada's identity.

Frequently Asked Questions

In which province is Ottawa located?

Ottawa is located in the province of Ontario, Canada.

Is Ottawa the capital city of Ontario?

No, Ottawa is the capital city of Canada, and it is situated in the province of Ontario.

What province is Ottawa a part of?

Ottawa is part of the province of Ontario.

Is Ottawa in Quebec or Ontario?

Ottawa is in Ontario, not Quebec.

Which province does Ottawa belong to?

Ottawa belongs to the province of Ontario.

What is the provincial location of Ottawa?

Ottawa is in the province of Ontario.

Is Ottawa located in the eastern or western part of Canada?

Ottawa is located in eastern Canada, within the province of Ontario.

Does Ottawa lie in Ontario or Quebec?

Ottawa lies in Ontario.

Which Canadian province is the city of Ottawa in?

The city of Ottawa is in the province of Ontario.

Is Ottawa in the same province as Toronto?

Yes, both Ottawa and Toronto are in the province of Ontario.

Additional Resources

Ottawa is in what province? A comprehensive guide to Canada's capital city and its provincial affiliation

Introduction

Ottawa is in what province? For many, this question might seem straightforward, yet it reveals a deeper curiosity about the geographical and political landscape of Canada's capital. Ottawa stands as a vibrant hub of politics, culture, and history, but its provincial identity often prompts questions among residents, travelers, and students alike. Understanding which province Ottawa belongs to is fundamental not only for geographic clarity but also for grasping the city's role within the broader Canadian context. This article explores Ottawa's provincial affiliation, its significance, and the rich history that intertwines with its location.

The Province of Ottawa: An Introduction

Ottawa's Provincial Location

Ottawa is the capital city of Canada, and it uniquely sits in the province of Ontario. Ontario is Canada's most populous province, home to major cities like Toronto, Hamilton, and Kingston. As the country's political heart, Ottawa's placement within Ontario influences its governance, infrastructure, and cultural identity.

Why the Province Matters

Knowing Ottawa's province is essential for several reasons:

- Legal Jurisdiction: Laws, policies, and governance are determined at the provincial level.
- Postal and Administrative Purposes: Postal codes, regional services, and administrative divisions depend on the province.
- Cultural Identity: Provincial culture, dialects, and traditions shape the city's social fabric.
- Travel and Tourism: Provincial borders impact travel regulations, provincial parks, and regional attractions.

Historical Context: How Ottawa Became Part of Ontario

The Founding of Ottawa

Ottawa was originally a small trading and lumber town in the early 19th century. Its strategic location along the Ottawa River made it an ideal site for commerce and transportation. Established as Bytown in 1826, it was renamed Ottawa in 1855, in honor of the local Ottawa River and the indigenous Ottawa (Odawa) people.

The Provincial Boundary and the Birth of Ottawa

Initially, the area that is now Ottawa was part of the Province of Quebec. However, the political landscape shifted in the mid-19th century when the boundaries between Quebec and Ontario were redefined. The key turning point came in 1867 with Canadian Confederation, which unified several British North American colonies into a single nation.

During this period, the selection of Ottawa as the capital was strategic, partly because of its location on the border between Quebec and Ontario. The city was situated in the Province of Canada, which was a political entity prior to confederation, but after the union, Ottawa officially became part of Ontario.

The Role of the Capital

Choosing Ottawa as the capital was a deliberate decision to balance regional interests and promote unity. Its location on the border of Quebec and Ontario symbolized the country's bilingual and bicultural identity, fostering a sense of national cohesion.

Geographic and Political Boundaries

Ottawa's Location within Ontario

Ottawa is situated in the eastern part of Ontario, along the southern bank of the Ottawa River. The city is part of the Eastern Ontario region, which includes neighboring towns and municipalities. It is approximately 400 kilometers (about 250 miles) east of Toronto, Ontario's provincial capital.

The National Capital Region

Ottawa forms the core of the National Capital Region (NCR), which extends into parts of Quebec, notably Gatineau. This cross-provincial region emphasizes the city's role as a federal hub and underscores its unique position straddling two provinces.

- Ottawa (Ontario): The administrative and political center.
- Gatineau (Quebec): The neighboring city across the river, known for its cultural institutions and French-speaking population.

This proximity highlights the interconnectedness of the two provinces in the region.

Administrative and Governance Implications

Provincial Governance

As part of Ontario, Ottawa falls under Ontario's provincial jurisdiction, including:

- Education systems
- Healthcare services
- Transportation infrastructure
- Provincial laws and regulations

The Ontario government oversees these aspects, working in tandem with municipal authorities to ensure regional development.

Federal Governance

Despite its provincial affiliation, Ottawa is primarily known for its status as Canada's federal capital. The city hosts the federal government's institutions, including Parliament Hill, the Prime Minister's Office, and numerous national agencies. This dual governance structure—provincial and federal—shapes the city's unique administrative environment.

Cultural Identity and Bilingualism

A Bilingual City

Although Ottawa is within Ontario, the city boasts a significant bilingual population, reflecting Canada's broader cultural mosaic. The city's proximity to Quebec fosters a vibrant French-speaking community, and many government services are offered in both English and French.

Cultural Influences

Ottawa's provincial location influences its cultural scene in several ways:

- Bilingual institutions: Bilingual schools, cultural centers, and media outlets.
- Festivals: Celebrations like the Ottawa Tulip Festival and Winterlude showcase diverse cultural traditions.
- Cuisine: A blend of Anglo and Franco cuisine, with influences from Indigenous and immigrant communities.

The Significance of Ottawa's Provincial Identity Today

Political and Legal Significance

Knowing that Ottawa is in Ontario clarifies its role within Canada's federal system. As the seat of the national government, the city is central to policymaking, diplomacy, and national identity, all operating within Ontario's legal framework.

Economic Importance

Ottawa's economy benefits from its provincial affiliation through:

- Access to Ontario's infrastructure and markets
- Collaboration with Ontario-based industries
- Funding and support from provincial programs

Regional Collaboration

Ottawa's position in Ontario fosters regional collaboration with nearby municipalities and contributes to provincial development initiatives.

Common Misconceptions and Clarifications

Despite the clear geographic answer, some confusion persists:

- Is Ottawa in Quebec? No. While Ottawa borders Quebec and shares cultural ties, it is firmly within Ontario.
- Why do some think it's in Quebec? Due to its proximity to Gatineau, Quebec, and the shared bilingual culture, misconceptions can arise.
- How does the cross-provincial region work? The National Capital Region exemplifies cooperation across borders, emphasizing Ottawa's unique status.

Conclusion

In summary, Ottawa is in what province? The definitive answer is Ontario. This provincial affiliation has profound implications on governance, culture, and regional identity. From its historical roots to its modern role as Canada's political hub, Ottawa's placement within Ontario shapes its character and significance.

Understanding Ottawa's provincial identity helps residents and visitors appreciate the city's rich history, its bilingual and multicultural environment, and its strategic importance within the federal and provincial landscape. Whether you're a student delving into Canadian geography or a traveler exploring the nation's capital, recognizing that Ottawa belongs to Ontario is fundamental to appreciating its place in Canada's mosaic.

Ottawa Is In What Province

ottawa is in what province: The Province of Saskatchewan, Canada Canada. Natural Resources Intelligence Branch, Franklin Hugo Kitto, 1919

ottawa is in what province: Statement of the Public Accounts of the Province of Quebec and Annual Report of the Auditor of the Province Québec (Province). Treasury Department, 1869

ottawa is in what province: Carbon Province, Hydro Province Douglas Macdonald, 2020-03-10
Why has Canada been unable to achieve any of its climate change targets? Part of the reason is that emissions in two provinces, Alberta and Saskatchewan, have been steadily increasing as a result of expanding oil and gas production. Declining emissions in other provinces, such as Ontario, Quebec, Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick, have been cancelled out by those western increases. The ultimate explanation for Canadian failure lies in the differing energy interests of the western and eastern provinces. How can Ottawa possibly get all the provinces moving in the same direction of decreasing emissions? To answer this question, Douglas Macdonald explores the five attempts to date to put in place co-ordinated national policy in the fields of energy and climate change - from Pierre Trudeau's ill-fated National Energy Program to Justin Trudeau's bitterly contested Pan-Canadian program - analyzing and comparing them for the first time.

ottawa is in what province: Perspectives on Ottawa's High-tech Sector Nick Novakowski, Rémy Tremblay, 2007
Canada's capital - Ottawa - is earning a reputation as a global technology centre that offers a dynamic mix of economic, cultural, educational and recreational opportunities. It is an advanced technology centre, particularly known for its research and development in the fields of telecommunications, technology services, software development, defence and security, microelectronics/wireless and photonics. Readers can see innovation and the elements of the New Economy revealed by the different authors detailing different accounts and analyses of the Ottawa area. The book is organised into four themes: 1. Ottawa: A Knowledge City?, 2. Planning the Cluster: By Decision, By Design or By Destiny?, 3. 'Growing' the Cluster: Idea Farming and Innovation Strategies for Economic Development, and 4. The Unique Ottawa Cluster: Regional, Bilingual and Cosmopolitan.

ottawa is in what province: Sessional Papers Canada. Parliament, 1905
Report of the Dominion fishery commission on the fisheries of the province of Ontario, 1893, issued as vol. 26, no. 7, supplement.

ottawa is in what province: Nuclear Regulatory Commission Issuances U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, 1977

ottawa is in what province: The Canada Gazette Canada, Canada. Royal Commission on the Law of Insanity as a Defence in Criminal Cases, 1929

ottawa is in what province: Sessional Papers of the Parliament of the Province of Canada Canada. Parliament, 1866

ottawa is in what province: Journals of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of ottawa is in what province: Bilingual Today, United Tomorrow Matthew Hayday, 2005-12-20 Hayday shows how the language programs and policies initiated by the Trudeau government supported French-Canadian and Acadian minority communities, enabling them to develop minority language education systems and laying the groundwork for the minority language education rights contained in section 23 of the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms. He examines how the dynamics of Canadian federalism shaped the implementation and development of language policy in six Canadian provinces and shows how advocates of these programs - politicians, bureaucrats, parents, lobbyists, and teachers - worked to ensure their success. These dynamic programs not only guaranteed minority language education rights but dramatically increased access to French second language instruction, particularly through the innovative new sector of French immersion.

Canada. Appendix Canada. Parliament. Legislative Assembly, 1866

ottawa is in what province: Sessional Papers ... of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario ... Ontario. Legislative Assembly, 1876

ottawa is in what province: Canada: The State of the Federation 1991 Douglas M. Brown, 1991

ottawa is in what province: The New International Encyclopaedia Frank Moore Colby, Talcott Williams, 1928

ottawa is in what province: From Sea to Sea to Sea David DeRocco, John F. Chabot, 2008-09

ottawa is in what province: Canadian Reference Sources Mary E. Bond, Martine M. Caron, 1996 This bibliography cites those Canadian and foreign reference sources that describe Canadian people, institutions, organizations, publications, art, literature, languages, and history. It lists books of a general nature as well as works in the disciplines of history and the humanities. These large divisions are then broken down by subject, genre, type of document, and province or territory. Titles of national, provincial/territorial, or regional interest are included in every subject area when available. The contents of the book are indexed four ways: by name, title, French subject, and English subject. And to facilitate browsing, the major reference books (those dealing with more than one subject or a large geographical region) are also cross-referenced. Two entries have been created for each bilingual document in order to provide access and bibliographical descriptions in both of Canada's official languages. Entries for unilingual works include a citation in the language of the publication and a bilingual annotation. The annotations are descriptive and provide information on the content, arrangements, and indexing of works; the availability of non-print formats; previous editions and title changes; and related works. Canadian Reference Sources will be an invaluable reference tool for future scholars and researchers.

ottawa is in what province: Cultural Change among the Algonquin in the Nineteenth Century Leila Inksetter, 2024-09-03 The nineteenth century was a time of upheaval for the Algonquin people. As they came into more sustained contact with fur traders, missionaries, settlers, and other outside agents, their ways of life were disrupted and forever changed. Yet the Algonquin were not entirely without control over the cultural change that confronted them in this period. Where the opportunity arose, they adapted by making decisions and choices according to their own interests. Cultural Change among the Algonquin in the Nineteenth Century traces the history of settler-Indigenous encounter in two areas around the modern Ontario-Quebec border, in the period after colonial incursion but before the full effects of the Indian Act of 1876 were felt. While Lake Timiskaming was the site of commercial logging operations beginning in the 1830s, the Lake Abitibi region had much less contact with outsiders until the early twentieth century. These different timelines permit comparison of social and cultural change among Indigenous peoples of these two regions. Drawing on nineteenth-century archival sources and twentieth-century ethnographic accounts, Leila Inksetter sheds new light on band formation and governance, the introduction of elected chiefs, food provisioning, environmental changes, and the interaction between Indigenous spirituality and Catholicism. Cultural change among the nineteenth-century Algonquin was experienced not only as an uninvited imposition from outside but as a dynamic response to new circumstances by Indigenous people themselves. Inksetter makes a case for greater recognition of Algonquin agency and decision making in this period before the implementation of the Indian Act.

ottawa is in what province: Boosting Innovation The Cluster Approach OECD, 1999-12-06 This book shows how technology policy makers in OECD countries are making practical use of the concept of clusters and suggests how government policies to foster innovation might best be refocused.

ottawa is in what province: Canada and Its Provinces Adam Shortt, Sir Arthur George Doughty, 1917

ottawa is in what province: Fred Cumberland Geoffrey Simmins, Frederic William Cumberland, 1997-01-01 Fred Cumberland (1821-81) a Canadian Renaissance man: an architect, railway manager and politician, whose life and work changed Victorian Toronto's urban landscape.

ottawa is in what province: Leadership in Disaster Raymond Murphy, 2009-04-01 Murphy explores whether technological development inadvertently constructed new vulnerabilities, thereby manufacturing a natural disaster. As the extreme weather in the ice storm may foreshadow what will occur with global warming, Leadership in Disaster also explores the politics, economics, ethics, and cultural predispositions involved in climate change, investigating how modern societies create both the risks they assume are acceptable and the burden of managing them. An innovative comparison with Amish communities, where the same extreme weather had trivial consequences, is instructive for avoiding future socio-economic catastrophes.

Related to ottawa is in what province

City of Ottawa OttaTalk Episode 7: What has the Zoning By-law ever done for me, anyway? Today, we OttaTalk about the new Zoning By-law, what it is, how it works, and how it will lead to more affordable

Agendas, minutes and videos - City of Ottawa This will ensure that the search engine only displays results from the City of Ottawa's agendas and minutes web portal. Links to the agenda and minutes will be published for each meeting

Maps - Ottawa Many different map layers of information are available, such as parks, schools, City facilities, property parcels, roads, zoning, and aerial photos dating back to 1928. geoOttawa is your

Garbage and recycling - City of Ottawa collection calendar, waste explorer, get a green, blue and/or black bin

Newcomer Reception Centres | Engage Ottawa The City of Ottawa is building newcomer reception centres in response to the significant increase in asylum claimants to our city, which consists of refugee claimants and migrants who arrive in

Traffic camera locations | City of Ottawa Cameras have full pan, tilt, & zoom capabilities controlled by operators, and the field of view may change dynamically. Images are reloaded every five (5) seconds. However, due to system

Department directory - City of Ottawa Contact the department directly for information, comments or issues. Replies can take up to five business days. Any urgent matters, call 3-1-1. Addressing and Signs For information on private

How to apply - City of Ottawa Eligibility To be eligible for the Rent Supplement Program you must apply to The Social Housing Registry of Ottawa. Refer to eligibility rules. Other rules may apply

Solid Waste Master Plan - Engage Ottawa Ottawa's population is expected to reach 1.5 million by 2053, and the amount of waste the City will need to manage is forecasted to increase by 31 per cent. The City-owned

Indigenous relations - City of Ottawa The City of Ottawa honours the peoples and land of the Anishinabe Algonquin Nation. The City of Ottawa honours all First Nations, Inuit and Métis peoples and their valuable past and present

City of Ottawa OttaTalk Episode 7: What has the Zoning By-law ever done for me, anyway? Today, we OttaTalk about the new Zoning By-law, what it is, how it works, and how it will lead to more affordable

Agendas, minutes and videos - City of Ottawa This will ensure that the search engine only displays results from the City of Ottawa's agendas and minutes web portal. Links to the agenda and minutes will be published for each meeting

Maps - Ottawa Many different map layers of information are available, such as parks, schools, City facilities, property parcels, roads, zoning, and aerial photos dating back to 1928. geoOttawa is your

Garbage and recycling - City of Ottawa collection calendar, waste explorer, get a green, blue and/or black bin

Newcomer Reception Centres | Engage Ottawa The City of Ottawa is building newcomer reception centres in response to the significant increase in asylum claimants to our city, which consists of refugee claimants and migrants who arrive in

Traffic camera locations | City of Ottawa Cameras have full pan, tilt, & zoom capabilities controlled by operators, and the field of view may change dynamically. Images are reloaded every five (5) seconds. However, due to system

Department directory - City of Ottawa Contact the department directly for information, comments or issues. Replies can take up to five business days. Any urgent matters, call 3-1-1. Addressing and Signs For information on private

How to apply - City of Ottawa Eligibility To be eligible for the Rent Supplement Program you must apply to The Social Housing Registry of Ottawa. Refer to eligibility rules. Other rules may apply

Solid Waste Master Plan - Engage Ottawa Ottawa's population is expected to reach 1.5 million by 2053, and the amount of waste the City will need to manage is forecasted to increase by 31 per cent. The City-owned

Indigenous relations - City of Ottawa The City of Ottawa honours the peoples and land of the Anishinabe Algonquin Nation. The City of Ottawa honours all First Nations, Inuit and Métis peoples and their valuable past and present

City of Ottawa OttaTalk Episode 7: What has the Zoning By-law ever done for me, anyway? Today, we OttaTalk about the new Zoning By-law, what it is, how it works, and how it will lead to more affordable

Agendas, minutes and videos - City of Ottawa This will ensure that the search engine only displays results from the City of Ottawa's agendas and minutes web portal. Links to the agenda and minutes will be published for each meeting

Maps - Ottawa Many different map layers of information are available, such as parks, schools, City facilities, property parcels, roads, zoning, and aerial photos dating back to 1928. geoOttawa is your

Garbage and recycling - City of Ottawa collection calendar, waste explorer, get a green, blue and/or black bin

Newcomer Reception Centres | Engage Ottawa The City of Ottawa is building newcomer reception centres in response to the significant increase in asylum claimants to our city, which consists of refugee claimants and migrants who arrive in

Traffic camera locations | City of Ottawa Cameras have full pan, tilt, & zoom capabilities controlled by operators, and the field of view may change dynamically. Images are reloaded every five (5) seconds. However, due to system

Department directory - City of Ottawa Contact the department directly for information, comments or issues. Replies can take up to five business days. Any urgent matters, call 3-1-1. Addressing and Signs For information on private

How to apply - City of Ottawa Eligibility To be eligible for the Rent Supplement Program you must apply to The Social Housing Registry of Ottawa. Refer to eligibility rules. Other rules may apply

Solid Waste Master Plan - Engage Ottawa Ottawa's population is expected to reach 1.5 million by 2053, and the amount of waste the City will need to manage is forecasted to increase by 31 per cent. The City-owned

Indigenous relations - City of Ottawa The City of Ottawa honours the peoples and land of the Anishinabe Algonquin Nation. The City of Ottawa honours all First Nations, Inuit and Métis peoples and their valuable past and present

City of Ottawa OttaTalk Episode 7: What has the Zoning By-law ever done for me, anyway? Today, we OttaTalk about the new Zoning By-law, what it is, how it works, and how it will lead to more affordable

Agendas, minutes and videos - City of Ottawa This will ensure that the search engine only displays results from the City of Ottawa's agendas and minutes web portal. Links to the agenda and minutes will be published for each meeting

Maps - Ottawa Many different map layers of information are available, such as parks, schools, City facilities, property parcels, roads, zoning, and aerial photos dating back to 1928. geoOttawa is your

Garbage and recycling - City of Ottawa collection calendar, waste explorer, get a green, blue and/or black bin

Newcomer Reception Centres | Engage Ottawa The City of Ottawa is building newcomer reception centres in response to the significant increase in asylum claimants to our city, which consists of refugee claimants and migrants who arrive in

Traffic camera locations | City of Ottawa Cameras have full pan, tilt, & zoom capabilities controlled by operators, and the field of view may change dynamically. Images are reloaded every five (5) seconds. However, due to system

Department directory - City of Ottawa Contact the department directly for information, comments or issues. Replies can take up to five business days. Any urgent matters, call 3-1-1.

Addressing and Signs For information on private

How to apply - City of Ottawa Eligibility To be eligible for the Rent Supplement Program you must apply to The Social Housing Registry of Ottawa. Refer to eligibility rules. Other rules may apply

Solid Waste Master Plan - Engage Ottawa Ottawa's population is expected to reach 1.5 million by 2053, and the amount of waste the City will need to manage is forecasted to increase by 31 per cent. The City-owned

Indigenous relations - City of Ottawa The City of Ottawa honours the peoples and land of the Anishinabe Algonquin Nation. The City of Ottawa honours all First Nations, Inuit and Métis peoples and their valuable past and present

City of Ottawa OttaTalk Episode 7: What has the Zoning By-law ever done for me, anyway? Today, we OttaTalk about the new Zoning By-law, what it is, how it works, and how it will lead to more affordable

Agendas, minutes and videos - City of Ottawa This will ensure that the search engine only displays results from the City of Ottawa's agendas and minutes web portal. Links to the agenda and minutes will be published for each meeting

Maps - Ottawa Many different map layers of information are available, such as parks, schools, City facilities, property parcels, roads, zoning, and aerial photos dating back to 1928. geoOttawa is your

Garbage and recycling - City of Ottawa collection calendar, waste explorer, get a green, blue and/or black bin

Newcomer Reception Centres | Engage Ottawa The City of Ottawa is building newcomer reception centres in response to the significant increase in asylum claimants to our city, which consists of refugee claimants and migrants who arrive in

Traffic camera locations | City of Ottawa Cameras have full pan, tilt, & zoom capabilities controlled by operators, and the field of view may change dynamically. Images are reloaded every five (5) seconds. However, due to system

Department directory - City of Ottawa Contact the department directly for information, comments or issues. Replies can take up to five business days. Any urgent matters, call 3-1-1.

Addressing and Signs For information on private

How to apply - City of Ottawa Eligibility To be eligible for the Rent Supplement Program you must apply to The Social Housing Registry of Ottawa. Refer to eligibility rules. Other rules may apply

Solid Waste Master Plan - Engage Ottawa Ottawa's population is expected to reach 1.5 million by 2053, and the amount of waste the City will need to manage is forecasted to increase by 31 per cent. The City-owned

Indigenous relations - City of Ottawa The City of Ottawa honours the peoples and land of the Anishinabe Algonquin Nation. The City of Ottawa honours all First Nations, Inuit and Métis peoples and their valuable past and present

City of Ottawa OttaTalk Episode 7: What has the Zoning By-law ever done for me, anyway? Today, we OttaTalk about the new Zoning By-law, what it is, how it works, and how it will lead to more affordable

Agendas, minutes and videos - City of Ottawa This will ensure that the search engine only displays results from the City of Ottawa's agendas and minutes web portal. Links to the agenda and minutes will be published for each meeting

Maps - Ottawa Many different map layers of information are available, such as parks, schools, City facilities, property parcels, roads, zoning, and aerial photos dating back to 1928. geoOttawa is your

Garbage and recycling - City of Ottawa collection calendar, waste explorer, get a green, blue and/or black bin

Newcomer Reception Centres | Engage Ottawa The City of Ottawa is building newcomer reception centres in response to the significant increase in asylum claimants to our city, which consists of refugee claimants and migrants who arrive in

Traffic camera locations | City of Ottawa Cameras have full pan, tilt, & zoom capabilities controlled by operators, and the field of view may change dynamically. Images are reloaded every five (5) seconds. However, due to system

Department directory - City of Ottawa Contact the department directly for information, comments or issues. Replies can take up to five business days. Any urgent matters, call 3-1-1. Addressing and Signs For information on private

How to apply - City of Ottawa Eligibility To be eligible for the Rent Supplement Program you must apply to The Social Housing Registry of Ottawa. Refer to eligibility rules. Other rules may apply

Solid Waste Master Plan - Engage Ottawa Ottawa's population is expected to reach 1.5 million by 2053, and the amount of waste the City will need to manage is forecasted to increase by 31 per cent. The City-owned

Indigenous relations - City of Ottawa The City of Ottawa honours the peoples and land of the Anishinabe Algonquin Nation. The City of Ottawa honours all First Nations, Inuit and Métis peoples and their valuable past and present

City of Ottawa OttaTalk Episode 7: What has the Zoning By-law ever done for me, anyway? Today, we OttaTalk about the new Zoning By-law, what it is, how it works, and how it will lead to more affordable

Agendas, minutes and videos - City of Ottawa This will ensure that the search engine only displays results from the City of Ottawa's agendas and minutes web portal. Links to the agenda and minutes will be published for each meeting

Maps - Ottawa Many different map layers of information are available, such as parks, schools, City facilities, property parcels, roads, zoning, and aerial photos dating back to 1928. geoOttawa is your

Garbage and recycling - City of Ottawa collection calendar, waste explorer, get a green, blue and/or black bin

Newcomer Reception Centres | Engage Ottawa The City of Ottawa is building newcomer reception centres in response to the significant increase in asylum claimants to our city, which consists of refugee claimants and migrants who arrive in

Traffic camera locations | City of Ottawa Cameras have full pan, tilt, & zoom capabilities controlled by operators, and the field of view may change dynamically. Images are reloaded every five (5) seconds. However, due to system

Department directory - City of Ottawa Contact the department directly for information, comments or issues. Replies can take up to five business days. Any urgent matters, call 3-1-1. Addressing and Signs For information on private

How to apply - City of Ottawa Eligibility To be eligible for the Rent Supplement Program you must apply to The Social Housing Registry of Ottawa. Refer to eligibility rules. Other rules may apply

Solid Waste Master Plan - Engage Ottawa Ottawa's population is expected to reach 1.5 million by 2053, and the amount of waste the City will need to manage is forecasted to increase by 31 per cent. The City-owned

Indigenous relations - City of Ottawa The City of Ottawa honours the peoples and land of the Anishinabe Algonquin Nation. The City of Ottawa honours all First Nations, Inuit and Métis peoples and their valuable past and present

Related to ottawa is in what province

Another Ottawa supervised consumption site closes as province withholds support (3don MSN) A supervised consumption site in the ByWard Market has closed its doors after failing to receive a crucial provincial endorsement before a midnight deadline

Another Ottawa supervised consumption site closes as province withholds support (3don MSN) A supervised consumption site in the ByWard Market has closed its doors after failing to receive a crucial provincial endorsement before a midnight deadline

Ottawa Public Health says province hasn't approved supervised consumption site (2d) OTTAWA — Ottawa Public Health says it's being forced to close a supervised consumption site in the city's ByWard Market area

Ottawa Public Health says province hasn't approved supervised consumption site (2d) OTTAWA — Ottawa Public Health says it's being forced to close a supervised consumption site in the city's ByWard Market area

Mayor willing to work with province as Ottawa misses target for housing funds (Yahoo News Canada1mon) Ottawa Mayor Mark Sutcliffe gave an update on Ottawa's budget. (Credit: Jean Levac) Ottawa Mayor Mark Sutcliffe said he's ready to work with the provincial government on a solution after the city

Mayor willing to work with province as Ottawa misses target for housing funds (Yahoo News Canada1mon) Ottawa Mayor Mark Sutcliffe gave an update on Ottawa's budget. (Credit: Jean Levac) Ottawa Mayor Mark Sutcliffe said he's ready to work with the provincial government on a solution after the city

Ottawa Public Health says province to blame as supervised consumption site closes (3d) Ottawa Public Health says it's being forced to close a supervised consumption site in the city's ByWard Market area because

Ottawa Public Health says province to blame as supervised consumption site closes (3d) Ottawa Public Health says it's being forced to close a supervised consumption site in the city's ByWard Market area because

Ottawa urges Supreme Court to set limits on how provinces can override Charter (16d) Ottawa brought forward the request in a written legal argument filed at the court on Wednesday, as part of the landmark case

Ottawa urges Supreme Court to set limits on how provinces can override Charter (16d) Ottawa brought forward the request in a written legal argument filed at the court on Wednesday, as part of the landmark case

3 provinces, 1 territory made pharmacare deals. Ottawa won't say if others are coming (Yahoo News UK1mon) Minister of Health Marjorie Michel has vowed to 'protect' the four pharmacare agreements Ottawa has already signed, but she hasn't committed to any additional negotiations. (Adrian Wyld/The Canadian

3 provinces, 1 territory made pharmacare deals. Ottawa won't say if others are coming (Yahoo News UK1mon) Minister of Health Marjorie Michel has vowed to 'protect' the four pharmacare agreements Ottawa has already signed, but she hasn't committed to any additional negotiations. (Adrian Wyld/The Canadian

Province puts pressure on Ottawa over transit (The Globe and Mail23y) In an unusual show of unity, Ontario municipalities and the provincial government turned up the heat yesterday on the federal government to make good on its promise to fund public transit. The united

Province puts pressure on Ottawa over transit (The Globe and Mail23y) In an unusual show of unity, Ontario municipalities and the provincial government turned up the heat yesterday on the federal government to make good on its promise to fund public transit. The united

Ottawa calls on Supreme Court to clarify the law around use of Charter's notwithstanding clause (16d) Filing propels Ottawa towards a clash with the provinces, including Quebec, Ontario and Alberta, on core Constitutional

Ottawa calls on Supreme Court to clarify the law around use of Charter's notwithstanding clause (16d) Filing propels Ottawa towards a clash with the provinces, including Quebec, Ontario and Alberta, on core Constitutional

Ottawa's speed camera plan in flux after province vows to prohibit them (8don MSN) The City of Ottawa's plan to add two dozen more speed cameras this year is in question after the Ontario government pledged

Ottawa's speed camera plan in flux after province vows to prohibit them (8don MSN) The City of Ottawa's plan to add two dozen more speed cameras this year is in question after the Ontario government pledged

Related Articles

- you got this quote
- great minds discuss ideas average minds discuss
- aa milne us two

Back to Home