Early Life and Background

Kenneth Erwin Hagin was born on September 20, 1917, in McKinney, Texas. Raised in a devout Christian home, Hagin's early life was marked by hardship, including the death of his father when he was just 15 years old. This loss deeply affected him and propelled his spiritual journey.

Conversion and Spiritual Awakening

In the late 1930s, Hagin experienced a pivotal spiritual encounter that would shape his future ministry. After suffering a severe illness believed to be incurable, he claims to have been miraculously healed during a prayer meeting. This event ignited his faith and set him on a path toward Pentecostal revivalism.

Early Ministry and Evangelism

Hagin began preaching in tent meetings and small churches, emphasizing faith, healing, and the power of the Holy Spirit. His early ministry was characterized by charismatic expressions such as speaking in tongues and faith healing, both of which would become hallmarks of his teachings.

Theological Foundations of Kenneth Hagin's Ministry

Kenneth Hagin's teachings are rooted in a particular interpretation of Scripture that emphasizes the believer's authority, faith, and the miraculous. His doctrines have profoundly influenced Pentecostal and Charismatic theology, but not without controversy.

The Word of Faith Movement

Hagin is widely recognized as a pioneer of the Word of Faith movement—a theological framework that asserts:

- Faith as a Force: Faith is a creative force that can alter circumstances.
- Confession and Decree: Speaking positive confessions can bring about desired outcomes.
- Prosperity Gospel: Material wealth and health are part of God's blessing for believers.
- Healing and Miracles: Divine healing is available to all believers, contingent on faith.

This movement emphasizes the power of words and belief in line with biblical passages like Mark 11:23-24 and Proverbs 18:21.

Key Doctrinal Positions

Kenneth Hagin's core teachings include:

- The Authority of the Believer: Believers have authority over Satan and circumstances through Christ.
- The Reality of the Spirit Realm: The spiritual realm is as real as the physical and can influence life.
- Healing is Part of Redemption: Divine healing is included in salvation and should be received by faith.
- The Importance of Confession: Positive confessions align believers with God's promises.

While these doctrines have inspired many, critics argue they oversimplify biblical teachings and promote a prosperity-oriented theology.

Kenneth Hagin's impact extends beyond his sermons—his teachings have inspired a vast network of churches, ministries, and pastors.

The RHEMA Bible Training Center

Founded in 1974 in Tulsa, Oklahoma, RHEMA (an acronym for "Rhema Bible Training Center") has trained thousands of ministers worldwide. The institution emphasizes faith, healing, and the Word of God, reflecting Hagin's teachings.

The Prosperity Gospel and Material Wealth

Critics argue that Hagin's emphasis on prosperity has led to materialism and has distorted biblical teachings on wealth. Some accuse the movement of exploiting vulnerable believers for financial gain.

Theology of Faith and Confession

Doubters contend that the "word of faith" theology promotes a "name it and claim it" mentality, potentially leading to disillusionment when prayers are not answered as expected.

Healing and Miracles

While many attest to healings claimed by Hagin and his followers, skeptics question the veracity of these claims, citing lack of medical verification and the potential for psychological factors.

Doctrinal Deviations and Accusations

Some theologians critique Hagin for deviating from orthodox Christianity, particularly regarding his views on sin, suffering, and divine healing. There are also allegations that his teachings downplay the importance of grace and repentance.

in him kenneth hagin: Christian Unity Through God's Starter Kit by Jesus William

McCracken, Bill McCracken, 2012-05 Christian Unity Through God's Starter Kit By Jesus was written by Bill McCracken from the perspective of a layman that determined in his heart to do things God's way on October 18, 1983 and after about a year of peace found himself in a battle he wasn't prepared for by his church. This is the story of what God has taught him through the eyes of the Bible, our window to the spiritual realm. He found that through God's riches in Christ Jesus that God had given him a Starter Kit of truth, wisdom, righteousness, sanctification, justification, glorification, holiness, remission, redemption, mercy, grace and peace with God, so we can take that Starter Kit and become wise, righteous, sanctified, just, trustworthy, holy, washed in His Word, redeemed, merciful, compassionate peacemakers so that he could go into spiritual warfare knowing who he is in Christ Jesus. Bill also found that we as Christians are all one in Christ Jesus according to Galatians 3:26-28 and that God's Word says that God wants no divisions among his people in First Corinthians 1:10 plus other scriptures that tell us to be in one accord, likeminded, of one mind, that we all speak the same thing, that we be perfectly joined together and that we should all come together in the unity of the faith. Sadly, Bill found that Christianity is deeply divided and splintered with over 38,000 different denominations worldwide and 1,500 in the United States alone. We must come together as one and defeat our one and only enemy, satan and his demons. Fortunately, when Bill came to God he literally did not know an epistle from an apostle and God could take that empty vessel and fill it with the truth from God's Word. He received the baptism of the Holy Ghost on November 26, 1983 and then could begin to teach him through ministering to others, failure or experience (the fire), books and tapes, preaching and it's amazing what you learn when you look up a word in a Bible concordance and learn the definition from the Greek dictionary. You know the definition, and then see how God teaches it in the Bible and it really isn't that difficult. Learn about God's Starter Kit by Jesus, born again, repentance, baptism, the baptism of the Holy Spirit and fire and the armor of God. Learn what a fiery dart is and how to defeat the fiery darts of the wicked and the story of satan and God's plan through Christ Jesus that defeated him. Learn about the covenant God has made with His children through His Son and then the authority He has given Christians in the spiritual realm in the Name of Jesus. Revelation 12:11, And they overcame him (the devil) by the blood of the Lamb (Jesus-The Word of God), and by the word of their testimony. Our testimony is very important to help others overcome the works of the devil when we combine it with the works of the cross and the Word of God. First John 3:8, For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that He might destroy the works of the devil. God's blessings-Bill McCracken in him kenneth hagin: Global Pentecostal and Charismatic Healing Candy Gunther Brown, 2011 Divine healing is an essential marker of the global phenomenon of Pentecostal and Charismatic Christianity. But although we know that healing is central in these movements, we know surprisingly little about how divine healing beliefs and practices reflect the interplay of local and global patterns of cultural development. The essays in this collection seek to discover what is the same and what is different about such beliefs and practices in diverse contexts, trace formal and informal lines of cultural influence across geographic and national boundaries, and ask how healing both reflects and contributes to larger processes of globalization. The collection not only fleshes out a picture of how and why spiritual healing is practiced in diverse cultural contexts and how healing practices reflect and shape the transnational spread of Christianity; it also provide insight into the nature of globalization. The authors attend to a wide range of issues, including the theological rationales for divine healing; the symbolic objects and ritual enactments employed; the cultural controversies surrounding these practices; the relationship between Christian healing and local or indigenous healing traditions; whether an emphasis on financial prosperity is always present; and the extent to which Pentecostal and Charismatic churches are networked and the role of healing in such networks. With nearly all new essays, this informative volume, edited by Candy Gunther Brown, contains a forward by Harvey Cox and contributions from an international team of sixteen professors, academics, and scholars.

Instead of positively affecting the secular culture, we are being infected by it under the guise of being seeker-friendly and loving. Soon, the church may be an exact mirror of the culture that seeks to destroy us. With a lack of strong, principled leaders, and with followers who want their ears tickled instead of being challenged to pursue righteousness, American Christianity is writing its own epitaph as it slowly dies. Unless we reverse course by embracing the complete, absolute truth of Gods Word and stop trying to redefine God in our selfish human image, only a remnant will remain from a once-powerful church. Do we have the courage to challenge our leaders and ourselves to reject secular culture and its influences? Or will we continue to die a slow death at our own hands as we continue to inhale the cancer of secular humanism? Time is running out.
