moviesheets com answers: Movie Questions and Answers For All Fans Alice Harrold, 2021-02 The biggest movie buffs know that sometimes a film's most interesting story isn't the one shown on the screen. Most movies have been in the works for years before audiences see the finished product for the first time: Scripts have to be written, studios have to purchase the distribution rights, actors and directors have to be brought on board, and so on until it hits theaters. Hundreds of people (and sometimes millions of dollars) have been involved in the production, marketing, and distribution of the final product. So, you think you're a cinephile? Or are you just really talented at trivia? It's time to find out.
