Detailed Breakdown of the 2022-23 Payroll Schedule

Pay Periods and Pay Dates

The OCPS payroll operates on a bi-weekly cycle, typically with pay periods ending on Fridays and paychecks issued the following Friday. Here is an overview of key pay periods:

Pay Period	Start Date	End Date	Pay Date	Notes
1	July 1	July 15	July 22	First pay of the fiscal year
2	July 16	July 29	August 5	Summer schedule adjustment
3	July 30	August 12	August 19	Regular schedule resumes
...	...	...	...	...
25	June 17	June 30	July 7	End of fiscal year processing

(Note: The actual calendar contains specific dates for each pay period, which can be obtained from official OCPS resources.)

Processing Deadlines and Administrative Considerations

To ensure timely payment, payroll data must be submitted by designated deadlines, usually several business days before the pay date. Missing these deadlines can result in delays or the need for manual adjustments.

Typical deadlines include:

- Submission of timesheets and attendance records.
- Payroll adjustments or corrections.
- Submission of leave requests and approvals.

Holidays and Non-Processing Days

Important district and federal holidays, such as Labor Day, Thanksgiving, Winter Break, and Spring Break, are factored into the schedule. On these days, payroll processing may be paused or delayed, so employees should plan accordingly.

Key Features and Highlights of the OCPS Payroll Calendar 2022-23

1. Transparency and Accessibility

The OCPS payroll calendar is made readily available to staff through multiple channels, including the district's HR portal, employee emails, and district intranet. This ensures that employees can access the schedule well in advance, facilitating personal financial planning.

2. Synchronization with Academic Calendar

The payroll schedule aligns with the school calendar, accommodating periods when school is in session, as well as breaks. This synchronization helps in managing payroll processing around fluctuating staffing patterns, such as substitute teachers, summer programs, and extended leaves.

3. Consideration of Pay Variations

OCPS employs different pay structures for various employee groups:

- Teachers and certified staff: Usually paid on a 10-month or 12-month basis, with specific summer pay schedules.
- Support staff: Often on a 12-month schedule, with consistent bi-weekly pay.
- Substitutes and temporary staff: May have different or more flexible schedules.

The calendar accounts for these differences, providing tailored timelines where necessary.

4. Special Pay Periods

Certain periods, such as summer months or special pay adjustments, may feature modified processing schedules. These are communicated well in advance, with detailed instructions on how to submit timesheets or claims.

Practical Tips for Employees and Administrators

For Employees:

- Mark Pay Dates: Keep track of pay dates to manage personal expenses.
- Note Deadlines: Submit timesheets, leave requests, and corrections before the cutoff dates.
- Review the Calendar Annually: Stay updated with any schedule changes or special notices.
- Plan for Holidays: Be aware of non-processing days that might delay pay or require manual intervention.

For Payroll Administrators:

- Prepare in Advance: Ensure all data submissions align with deadlines; automate reminders.
- Communicate Changes: Notify staff promptly about any schedule adjustments.
- Coordinate with District Events: Adjust processing around district holidays or special events.
- Audit Regularly: Cross-verify payroll data against the calendar to prevent errors.
