This article explores the significance of these prayer points, their biblical foundations, how to effectively use them, and practical tips for maximizing their spiritual benefits.

Understanding the Concept of Commanding the Morning

Before delving into specific prayer points, it is essential to understand what it means to "command the morning." In a spiritual context, commanding the morning involves invoking divine power to influence the day positively. It is rooted in the biblical principle that the believer has authority through Christ to declare God's will over their circumstances.

Biblical Foundations

Several scriptures underpin the practice of commanding the morning:

- Job 38:12-13: "Have you commanded the morning since your days began, and caused the dawn to know its place?"

This verse highlights God's sovereignty over the dawn, implying believers can also invoke divine authority during these times.

- Psalm 65:8: "You make the dawn and the sunset shout for joy."

Celebrates God's control over the natural order, reinforcing that believers can align themselves with divine power at the start of each day.

- Lamentations 3:22-23: "Because of the Lord's great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail. They are new every morning."

Emphasizes the renewal and fresh mercy available each morning, which believers can tap into through prayer.

Why the Morning?

The early hours are considered spiritually potent because they are a time when the spiritual realm is more accessible, and divine blessings can be released before daily challenges unfold. Praying in the morning aligns with the biblical principle of seeking God's guidance first (Matthew 6:33) and taking spiritual authority over the day.

mfm prayer points to command the morning: Command the Morning John Miller, 2015-03-06 In this day and age, getting a good job or obtaining the essential skills to use in business depends in large part on your performance in school. The world is gradually shifting away from what school you went to and to an emphasis on what you know and what can you do with what you know. It is either you can add value to an employer or a business or you cannot. If you can, you secure the opportunity and if you cannot, you are on your own. The sum total of all that you know upon graduating from high school, college or university is based on what you learn each and everyday while you are a student. As education plays such a crucial role in our world, anything that prevents daily learning, deducts from your knowledge and therefore affects your ability to secure a bright future or fulfill your purpose in life. If you are a student and you need daily divine intervention concerning your academic life, spiritual life, interpersonal relationships, family life and every other area, "Command the Morning: 2015 Daily Prayer Manual for Students" is a unique book that can help you. This prayer manual was written to enable you actualize what was promised to you in John 14:12-14, so that you can fulfill your purpose and destiny on earth just like Jesus did, using the same instruments He used - prayers and commands. This manual also provides the essential prayers, confessions and scriptures with which to achieve academic excellence and intellectual breakthroughs. Please do not leave your house or dorm in the morning without using this book. Without a doubt, if you do everything that is written in this book everyday and you have faith, you all will live a life of destiny fulfillment and achievement even as your life continues to please the Almighty.
