Vishnu Sahasranamam Kannada is a revered text in Hinduism, consisting of a thousand names of Lord Vishnu, a principal deity in the Hindu pantheon. This ancient scripture is derived from the epic Mahabharata and is particularly significant in Vaishnavism, where devotees chant these names to seek blessings, peace, and spiritual upliftment. In this article, we will delve into the significance, structure, and the cultural impact of Vishnu Sahasranamam, particularly in the Kannada context.

Understanding Vishnu Sahasranamam

Vishnu Sahasranamam is not just a collection of names; it embodies the essence of Lord Vishnu's attributes, qualities, and divine functions. Each name signifies a particular form or aspect of the deity, providing devotees with a comprehensive understanding of His multifaceted nature.

The Origin of Vishnu Sahasranamam

The composition of Vishnu Sahasranamam is attributed to sage Vedavyasa, who compiled this sacred text during the Mahabharata era. It is found in the Anushasana Parva of the Mahabharata, where Bhishma, lying on the battlefield, imparts this knowledge to Yudhishtira. The chanting of these names is believed to bring immense benefits, including spiritual enlightenment and worldly prosperity.

Structure of Vishnu Sahasranamam

The Vishnu Sahasranamam is structured in a systematic manner, comprising:

1. Invocation: The text begins with a prayer to Lord Vishnu, seeking His blessings.
2. Names of Vishnu: Following the invocation, the thousand names are listed, each accompanied by their meanings.
3. Philosophical Commentary: Various commentaries explore the deeper meanings and theological implications of the names.
4. Conclusion: The text typically concludes with a prayer for peace and tranquility.

Significance of Vishnu Sahasranamam in Kannada Culture

In Karnataka, the Vishnu Sahasranamam holds a special place in the hearts of devotees. The Kannada version of this text has made it accessible to a larger audience, enabling local devotees to connect with the divine through their mother tongue.

vishnu sahasranamam kannada: Vishnu Sahasranama V. Ravi, Vishnu means all pervading.

Vishnu is the administrator of the universe. He puts in place, the laws of the universe and administers the universe strictly according to the law. He is a strict disciplinarian, yet highly compassionate in nature. He presides over all the seven planes of the universe. The abode of Vishnu is supposed to be the Supreme one. He has prescribed various paths through which one has to travel to reach His abode, the point of no return for a soul, known as liberation. He has been referred to in Vedas. Without Vishnu, no fire ritual is complete. He is quite often referred to as Purusha, the Supreme Soul. His famous sleeping posture on Ananta, the snake, who floats on the ocean of milk, is very well known. This posture is not merely a gross description, but has got subtle meaning. Ananta means infinite and the milk of ocean refers to the eternal bliss. He lies in the ocean of eternal bliss. Those who seek Him also enter the state of bliss at some point of time. He incarnates in different forms to destroy evil doers. His avatars occur whenever there is imbalance between morality and immorality. When immorality begins to dominate over morality He incarnates. His notable incarnations are Lord Rama and Lord Krishna. The scene of unfolding this great Sahasranama happened in the great epic Mahabharata authored by sage, Veda Vyasa. Bhishma was lying on a bed made of arrows awaiting his death. At that time, he was meditating on Krishna. Knowing this, Krishna asked Yudhishtira (eldest among Pandava brothers and known for his righteousness) to seek spiritual initiation from Bhishma and also told Bhishma to initiate Yudhishtira. Yudhishtira asks Bhishma kimekam daivatam loke meaning who is the Supreme Lord of the world. Bhishma replies by saying, that the purest, the most auspicious, the chief among the gods and the father of all the beings is the One who is Supreme, referring to Lord Vishnu. This conversation appears in the purvabhag of this Sahasranama. The spiritual initiation of Yudhishtira by Bhishma is Vishnu Sahasranama. Krishna was also present when this happened and this Sahasranama was blessed by the Lord Himself. Vishnu is also known as Narayana. Garuda Purana (III.24.54, 55) explains the etymological meaning of Narayana. "As He is the resort of merits and demerits and as He abides in the waters of ocean, He is called Narayana. Water is also called nara (probably meaning cosmic water); as His Abode is water, He is called Narayana." Vishnu is the most auspicious form of the Brahman. He is not only invoked during auspicious occasions, but also while performing funeral rites. At the time of conclusion of all rituals, the effect of the rituals are surrendered to Vishnu. Vishnu Sahasranama consists of three parts – purvabhag or the first part; stotrabhag or the main part from which one thousand names or nama-s are composed; and uttarabhag or the concluding part. The main part consists of 108 couplets from which all the 1000 nama-s are derived. Apart from these three parts, this Sahasranama has seven dhyana verses by which one can meditate upon His auspicious form. All the one thousand nama-s have been interpreted based on ancient Scriptures like Upanishad-s. Wherever possible, quantitation from Upanishad-s and other Scriptures have been used. Many of the nama-s are interpreted from the point of view of attaining Him to get liberation. Wherever needed, Sanskrit verses have been used along with IAST, for the sake of proper pronunciation.
