

eagle scout letter of recommendation sample

Eagle Scout letter of recommendation sample is an essential component of the application process for earning the prestigious Eagle Scout rank in the Boy Scouts of America (BSA). This letter serves as a testament to the candidate's character, leadership skills, and commitment to the values of scouting. It is a critical part of the board of review, which assesses the scout's readiness to achieve this honor. In this article, we will delve into the purpose and importance of the Eagle Scout letter of recommendation, provide guidelines on how to write one, and offer a sample letter that can serve as a valuable reference.

Understanding the Eagle Scout Letter of Recommendation

The Eagle Scout letter of recommendation is a formal document written by individuals who know the scout well, such as teachers, community leaders, religious figures, or family friends. These letters are intended to highlight the scout's accomplishments, character traits, and contributions to the community.

Purpose of the Letter

The primary purposes of the Eagle Scout letter of recommendation include:

1. Character Assessment: The letter provides insight into the scout's moral and ethical standards.
2. Leadership Qualities: It highlights the scout's ability to lead and inspire others.
3. Commitment to Service: It showcases the scout's dedication to community service and the values of scouting.
4. Support for Eagle Scout Application: This letter serves as a significant supporting document for the scout's application.

Who Can Write the Letter?

Letters of recommendation can be written by various individuals, including:

- Scout leaders or mentors
- Teachers or school administrators
- Community service leaders
- Religious or spiritual leaders
- Employers or coaches

It is essential that the writer is someone who can provide meaningful insights into the scout's character and achievements.

Guidelines for Writing an Eagle Scout Letter of Recommendation

Writing an effective Eagle Scout letter of recommendation involves several key steps. Here are guidelines to help ensure that the letter is impactful:

1. Format and Structure

- Use a formal letter format: The letter should start with the date, followed by the recipient's address (if known), and a formal salutation such as "Dear Eagle Scout Board of Review."
- Maintain a professional tone: The language should be respectful and formal.
- Keep it concise: Aim for a one-page letter, focusing on the most relevant points.

2. Introduction

- Introduce yourself: State your name, position, and relationship to the scout.
- Mention the purpose: Clearly indicate that the letter is a recommendation for the Eagle Scout rank.

3. Body of the Letter

- Highlight specific qualities: Discuss the scout's leadership abilities, character, and commitment to scouting.
- Provide examples: Use anecdotes or specific instances that illustrate the scout's positive attributes.
- Emphasize accomplishments: Mention any significant achievements, especially those related to the scout's Eagle project.

4. Conclusion

- Summarize your recommendation: Reiterate your support for the scout's application.
- Offer further contact: Invite the board to contact you for additional information, if necessary.
- Sign off formally: Use a closing such as "Sincerely" or "Best regards," followed by your name and contact information.

eagle scout letter of recommendation sample: Becoming an Eagle Scout Jerry D. Rakes, 2007-06 Until the fall of 2006 I was one of four Eagle Advancement Committee members of Pioneer District of Lincoln Heritage Council of Louisville, KY. Over the past 8 years I had the pleasure of assisting Scoutmasters with their Life Scouts making the Eagle rank. I evaluated 52 Eagle Proposals and sat on 44 Eagle Boards of Review. Moreover, I served as Scoutmaster of Troop 147 for 10 years, and before that I was Cubmaster of Pack 147. Being part of this District, I also served as Chairman of several Fall and Winter District Camporees and Merit Badge Fairs. There are other events too numerous to mention. As a former Scoutmaster, I well remember the uncertainties I once had of the procedures in assisting Life Scouts with the formulation and completion of their Eagle Projects and all the required paperwork dictated by the district, council, and national office. Therefore, I have put together a guide that I believe will assist Scoutmasters, other leaders, and the Life Scouts in attaining the rank of Eagle. Through research, I have learned that most Boy Scout Councils and their Districts go about the process in about the same way. However, I was not able to find documentation that specifically outlined each and every step of this process and which specifically listed all the documentation that this affords. I have made use of my Councils web site (<http://www.lhcbasa.org/>) and have made it accessible for you to download several required documents in PDF form. You will also have to substitute the names of your Council and District for the ones I have listed. I hope that you will find that this guideline offers a consistent approach that if followed will eliminate so many confusing approaches to the process. The biggest problem appeared to be the completion of the Eagle Scout Leadership Project Workbook, No. 18-927A, giving many leaders problems. There was considerable ambiguity in deciding exactly what the Reviewers of the Proposals might want included. Some wanted more detail in one part and not in another. For example, some insisted on letters of need for a project whereas some did not. Sections 1 and 2 of this guide address all the concerns in the Workbook with examples and clarification for the Life Scout and Scoutmaster. Also, I have purposely omitted any reference to NESA (National Eagle Scout Association) or any possible scholarship that may arise from a Scout earning Eagle. I leave this up to the Scoutmasters and other leaders to cover this with the Eagle candidate. The Lincoln Heritage Council gives its permission for you to duplicate and use any of its forms. I quote, This section of the Lincoln Heritage Council web site contains various forms from the Council and BSA National offices. Feel free to download them, print them, and use them elsewhere. (<http://www.lhcbsa.org/>) Lastly, thank you for trying this approach, and I sincerely hope that it proves useful to you. Please contact me at email address jerrydrakes@gmail.com for any comments. Yours in Scouting, Dr. Jerry D. Rakes
