The letter should be formatted as a formal business letter, including:

- Your contact information (name, address, phone number, email)
- Date of writing
- Recipient's name and title
- A formal greeting (e.g., "Dear Eagle Scout Board of Review")

2. Introduction

Begin the letter with a brief introduction that states who you are, your relationship with the Scout, and how long you have known them. For example:

"I am [Your Name], a [Your Title/Position] at [Organization/School]. I have had the pleasure of knowing [Scout's Name] for [length of time] in my capacity as [your relationship]."

- Leadership Skills: Describe instances where the Scout demonstrated leadership, such as leading a project or mentoring younger Scouts.
- Character Traits: Highlight personal qualities such as integrity, perseverance, and respect for others.
- Community Service: Mention any community service projects the Scout has been involved in, emphasizing their impact on the community.

4. Conclusion

also offer to provide further information or answer any questions if needed. End with a formal closing (e.g., "Sincerely") and your signature.

Obtaining a Template for the Recommendation Letter

eagle scout recommendation letter pdf: Becoming an Eagle Scout Jerry D. Rakes, 2007-06 Until the fall of 2006 I was one of four Eagle Advancement Committee members of Pioneer District of Lincoln Heritage Council of Louisville, KY. Over the past 8 years I had the pleasure of assisting Scoutmasters with their Life Scouts making the Eagle rank. I evaluated 52 Eagle Proposals and sat on 44 Eagle Boards of Review. Moreover, I served as Scoutmaster of Troop 147 for 10 years, and before that I was Cubmaster of Pack 147. Being part of this District, I also served as Chairman of several Fall and Winter District Camporees and Merit Badge Fairs. There are other events too numerous to mention. As a former Scoutmaster, I well remember the uncertainties I once had of the procedures in assisting Life Scouts with the formulation and completion of their Eagle Projects and all the required paperwork dictated by the district, council, and national office. Therefore, I have put together a guide that I believe will assist Scoutmasters, other leaders, and the Life Scouts in attaining the rank of Eagle. Through research, I have learned that most Boy Scout Councils and their Districts go about the process in about the same way. However, I was not able to find documentation that specifically outlined each and every step of this process and which specifically listed all the documentation that this affords. I have made use of my Councils web site (<http://www.lhcbso.org/>) and have made it accessible for you to download several required documents in PDF form. You will also have to substitute the names of your Council and District for the ones I have listed. I hope that you will find that this guideline offers a consistent approach that if followed will eliminate so many confusing approaches to the process. The biggest problem appeared to be the completion of the Eagle Scout Leadership Project Workbook, No. 18-927A, giving many leaders problems. There was considerable ambiguity in deciding exactly what the Reviewers of the Proposals might want included. Some wanted more detail in one part and not in another. For example, some insisted on letters of need for a project whereas some did not. Sections 1 and 2 of this guide address all the concerns in the Workbook with examples and clarification for the Life Scout and Scoutmaster. Also, I have purposely omitted any reference to NESA (National Eagle Scout Association) or any possible scholarship that may arise from a Scout earning Eagle. I leave this up to the Scoutmasters and other leaders to cover this with the Eagle candidate. The Lincoln Heritage Council gives its permission for you to duplicate and use any of its forms. I quote, This section of the Lincoln Heritage Council web site contains various forms from the Council and BSA National offices. Feel free to download them, print them, and use them elsewhere. (<http://www.lhcsa.org/>) Lastly, thank you for trying this approach, and I sincerely hope that it proves useful to you. Please contact me at email address jerrydrakes@gmail.com for any comments. eagle scout recommendation letter pdf: Legacy of Honor Alvin Townley, 2025-08-22 Over the past century, America's Eagle Scouts have earned a reputation for service, virtue, and leadership that is recognized throughout the world. But few people realize the full extent to which Eagle Scouts have made a mark on American history. They have served as astronauts, soldiers, politicians, and businessmen, but they have also been the fathers, brothers, Scoutmasters, coaches, and other role models who have played an integral part in American life. Alvin Townley set out across the country to hear the stories of these Eagle Scouts. He spoke with individuals from every region, of every age and every background, some of whom have risen to fame as public figures while others have left a lasting impact outside of the spotlight. The Eagle Scouts who share their experiences include Bill Gates, Sr., Bill Bradley, J. W. Marriott, Jr., Ross Perot, Michael Bloomberg, Richard Lugar, Michael Dukakis, Supreme Court Justice Stephen Breyer, Treasury Secretary Hank Paulson, coach Chan Gailey, and Capt. Jim Lovell of Apollo 13. The book also explores the virtues of a Tuskegee Airman, a Vietnam War POW, a September 11 NYPD hero, a crew of Hurricane Katrina relief workers, and a host of others from every walk of life. During his journey, Alvin discovered stories of character, courage, and inspiration that belong not only to Eagle Scouts but to all Americans. These stories form the heart of Legacy of Honor and offer us a chance to appreciate the profound impact that Eagle Scouts have had on American history and the lasting role they will play in our country's future.
