The Story Behind "The Name Jar"

Overview of the Book

"The Name Jar," published in 2001, tells the story of a young girl named Unhei who moves from Korea to the United States. Upon her arrival at her new school, Unhei faces the challenge of introducing herself with a name that may be unfamiliar to her classmates. To ease her transition, she decides to create a "name jar," where her peers can suggest names for her. The narrative beautifully unfolds as Unhei navigates the complexities of her identity, cultural heritage, and the importance of names.
